This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

This Supplementary Calendar of Letters to and from Jefferson is rendered necessary by the accession of certain manuscripts from the Library of Congress, in 1897, three years after the publication of Bulletin No. 8, containing the second part of the Calendar of the original Jefferson collection in the custody of the Bureau of Rolls and Library. In December, 1897, the Librarian of Congress delivered these additional papers to the Department of State with the following statement:

> These Jefferson papers were sent to the Joint Committee on the Library, with others, upon an application of the heirs to have returned to them the papers of a private nature, which had been in possession of the Government pending the selection of material to be published. An examination of all the papers resulted in the return by the committee of a selection of the papers which were unquestionably private, to Miss Sarah N. Randolph, representing the heirs, leaving all which were of a public nature, or partly public and partly private, in the hands of the committee.

There are, for official reasons—as a matter of administrative convenience—separately calendared here, also, many letters (duplicated to a certain extent in the Department's current files) which appeared only in groups in Bulletin No. 8, being anonymous letters; letters from C. W. F. Dumas, and letters from the heads of the several Executive Departments during Jefferson's administrations, entered under their proper names, as well as addresses to the President commending his administration and asking him to accept a third term, which were lately acquired from another bureau of the Department. Finally, this number of the Bulletin contains an index of the three parts of the Jefferson Calendar contained in the Bulletin, Nos. 6, 8, and 10.

DEARBORN, HENRY. Monticello.

1805, March 25, Washington. Incloses a letter from the Marquis Lafayette; he appears not unwilling to accept an appointment in Lower Louisiana. Supposes General Armstrong was authorized to sound him. General Scott is instructed to set out for Louisiana immediately. Mr. Dunbar is to arrange and direct an exploring party. Generals Robertson and Dinsmore are to treat with the Choctaws and Chickasaws. Mr. Monroe's dispatches show no hope of obtaining West Florida except by an equivalent from western Louisiana. Series 3, vol. 10, No. 127. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1805, April 19 (received). Should he (Jefferson) raise Colonel Williams to a higher grade than a lieutenant-colonel, he (Dearborn) will not oppose it. Series 3, vol. 10, No. 121. [½ page.]

1805, May 16. The sentence of the court-martial on Lieutenant Harper is unusual, but thinks the President should approve it. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 1. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1805, July 20, Washington. Mr. John T. Mason adheres to his determination not to accept office. A letter from Robinson and Dinsmore gives an account of the meeting with the Choctaws from which it appears there is little hope of a successful issue to the treaty. Suggests giving the appointment to Sullivan, etc. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 2. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, July 29, Washington. Incloses letter from Mr. Crowninshield on the subject of a collector for Cape Ann. Has no personal knowledge of Mr. Kittridge. The treaty received, which Mr. Jouett has made with the Indians on Lake Erie. The Connecticut Company has obtained the Indian title to the remaining land and a cession has been made to the United States. Incloses letter from Colonel Hawkins. Discusses Spanish affairs. Should Spain attempt to establish advance posts, immediate steps toward Nacogdoches and the mouth of the Colorado. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 3. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, December 9, War Department. Incloses two copies of documents relating to the improper conduct of officers and other subjects of the King of Spain in Louisiana. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 17. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, December 27, War Department. An examination of the records of the Department shows no evidence that any State indebted to the United States has taken measures to discharge the balances due under the acts of 1797, 1798, and 1799. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 18. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, January 31, War Department. Transmits a list of promotions and appointments in the Corps of Engineers, made during the recess of Congress. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 19. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, February 27. Is of opinion that it is best not to notice the projects proposed by roving preachers, especially of one application for 2 miles square near Sandusky. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 20. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, March 4 (received). Memorandum of a plan to survey, etc., 20 townships of 6 miles square, the settlers to be brought from Pittsburg or places on the western waters. Details of the scheme. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 21. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, March 5 (received). It is unnecessary to nominate district paymasters to the Senate, or cadets. If the list of the latter has been sent, it will be proper to recall it. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 22. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, March 17. Has attentively examined the papers in the case of the Louisiana commissioners, and it appears to him that the principles governing them are manifestly unsound and unjustifiable, and the removal of one or two highly necessary. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 23. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, April 10 (received). The name of the Ricara chief was Aukedoncharo. Thinks it not improbable it should be "Inca," as in Peru it means chief, and is continued among some of the tribes in Louisiana. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 24. [4°. 1 page.]

DEARBORN, HENRY.

1806, May 5, War Department. Incloses blank commissions for signature, the brigadier-general being desirous of filling the existing vacancies in the militia of the District of Columbia immediately. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 25. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1806, May 13, Washington. George Ellicott recommended to be an Indian agent by one Wright, a Quaker. A newspaper from New Orleans gives no military news, so presumes all to be quiet about Natchitoches. Major Fortier, aide-de-camp to Governor Claiborne, sets out for Monticello the following day. He has given him a full account of the construction, garrison, etc. at Baton Rouge. Series 3 vol. 11, No. 26. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1806, July 17. Mr. Lascelles's claim for services as related by himself may be correct. General Wayne having died at Presque Isle, he could give no account of them to the President. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 27. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1806, August 31, Washington. He and Mrs. Dearborn start for Monticello the following day. The Kickapoos threaten hostilities. In Dr. Sibley's letters he mentions another project of the Spanish officers for taking Adair. Freeman may be intercepted on his way up the Red River. General Wilkinson, on the 28th of July, was still in St. Louis. His delay can not be accounted for, etc. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 33. [4°. 3 pages.]

Washington.

1806, October 5. On the previous day, met Mr. Gallatin and inquired into the present situation of his Cape Hatteras claim. Regrets having to trouble him (J.) on this subject, but his duty to his family, etc., compels it. His pecuniary circumstances are most narrow. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 34. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, November 13. The fate of our negotiations with Spain will be known before the close of the ensuing session. The military establishment should be increased by additions to the infantry and cavalry. Estimates thereof, etc. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 36. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, August 7. Table showing proposed disposition of the Army in case of war. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 69. [Folio. 1 page.]

DEARBORN, HENRY.

1807, August 11, Washington. Pay and provisions for the additional company ordered by the governor and council of Virginia should be met by the State. On the previous day he, with Colonels Lisle and Kanney, visited Diggs Point, the site for a proposed fortification. In case of war thinks the executives of States should be held in strong check as to their power of calling out the militia, else we shall be subjected to embarrassments and expense. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 52.
[4°. 3 pages.]

1807, August 14, Washington. Acknowledges letter of the 9th. Had understood that the business of flags had been left to Captain Decatur. Mr. Barlow's letter informs him that Mr. Wolcott declines the general post-office. A letter from John Nicholas has been sent to Mr. Madison. The State of New York should be the last to ask for arms for her militia from the General Government. Intends leaving for the North on the following Monday if approved. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 53. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, August 17, Washington. Governor Cabell's letter relating to intercourse by flags of truce. Incloses affidavit from Timothy Kibby. Sees no objection to the course proposed for reorganization of the volunteers, especially if the governor confines himself to letters of instructions to persons suitable for the command of companies, battalions, etc., which will be instead of commissions. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 56. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, August 18, Washington. Having received his (Jefferson's) approval, will start the following morning for Maine. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 57. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1807, October 1, New York. Will leave the following morning for the seat of government. The "fortification fever" in the city appears to have intermitted. In the Southern States apprehensions of war have subsided also. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 58. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, October 12. Sergeant Dunbar can not be discharged at present, but may be transferred to another company. Considers Captain McComb a suitable person to attend any experiments Mr. Dayley may wish to make. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 59.

1807, October 17 (received). Notes on the message. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 60. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, October 28. Discusses the British sine quâ non. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 61. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, October 24. It is advisable to have correct muster and pay rolls to be made out of the militia at Norfolk in actual service and discharge them at the expiration of their term. Doubts the expediency of calling out any of the militia, as rumors of war do not return. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 62. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, November 3. Has perused the proposed bill for classing the militia and can find no objection therein. Series 3, vol 11, No. 63. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, November 18. Thinks obstructions should be placed opposite Craney Island or Fort Norfolk to prevent the passage of ships of war. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 64. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, November 21 (received). Location of the regular troops of the United States. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 121. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, December 17, War Department. List of persons nominated to be surgeons' mates in the Army. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 65.

DEARBORN, HENRY.

1808, August 15, Gardiner. General Skinner's imprudence as State treasurer has ruined himself and injured the Republican interest. Ultimately he will be able to refund the money. The Northern States encourage violations of the embargo. The fortifications will probably be completed in October, and hopes to give a satisfactory report to Congress. Series 3, vol. 11, Nos. 89 and 90. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, August 18, Gardiner. Acknowledges letters of the 5th and 9th instant, and inclosures. If the opposition to the laws (embargo) should require the active support of Government, he will not be slow to give all possible aid. Does not apprehend anything like a general insurrection. On the subject of a war between the Osages and their red neighbors, they should be informed that we will no longer remain a barrier, etc. Has always considered the Sabine as the temporary boundary between the United States and Spain, and we have to exercise jurisdiction eastward. Approves Colonel Meigs's proposition to the Cherokees. Without reference to the records, can say nothing about appointments in the Army. Thought the question of the 100,000 militia was to rest till they (J. and D.) met again. Series 3, vol. 11, No. 91. [4°. 4 pages.]

DEARBORN, HENRY.

1808, September 4, Bath. Acknowledges letter of the 20th ultimo, with communications from Governor Lewis. MACON, NATHANIEL. Washington.

1801, April 20, Warrenton. Has not been able to see General Davie concerning the appointment of commissioners to treat with the Indians. Suggests Maj. Absalom Tatom in case more than one appointment is made. Names Henry Potter for the place refused by Sitgreaves. What the people expect of his administration. Series 6, vol. 7, No. 7. [4°. 2 pages.]

1801, April 23, Buck Spring. Advising him not to appoint persons concerned in a printing office to post-office positions. Series 6, vol. 7, No. 8. [4°. 1 page.]

1773, August 12, Edinburgh. Acknowledging letter of February 12. Ossian's poems. Has sent a Gallic New Testament and a vocabulary. [A letter of August 7, 1773, from James Macpherson to the writer is attached. 4°. 2 pages.] Series 6, vol. 1, No. 11. [4°. 4 pages. Inclosure.]

1801, May 1. Memorandum of the proceedings of the Department of State during the month of April in the matter of appointments, instructions, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 1. [4°. 2 pages.]

1801, July 17. Memorandum on the subject of the indictment under the sedition act against Duane, requested by the Senate; a prosecution against him, at common law, also pending. Incloses letter from Mr. Dallas on the subject. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 7. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, July 20, Washington [to A. J. DALLAS]. Respecting the case against William Duane. Incloses a copy of a pardon issued in favor of William Priestman. Series 6, vol. 7, No. 38. [Copy. 4°. 1 page.]

1801, August 1, Washington. Department of State circular to consuls and commercial agents of the United States, and form of certificate. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 9. [Print. 3 pages.]

Monticello.

1801, August 12 (received). Sends this letter by Dr. Rose. Has had a letter from Humbold on the subject of printing the laws in his German newspaper. Wagner authorized to have it done. Incloses Thornton's letter as to the prize carried into Boston, and Wagner's sketch of a reply. If he (J.) considers it best to meet the pretensions under the British treaty now, rather than wait the result of the questions pending, wishes him to signify it. Will the ground taken by Wagner be substantially approved? Series 3, vol. 8, No. 8. [4°. 2 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1801, August 18. Incloses letters and papers, among them a second letter from Thornton. Doubts if the case of the British vessel carried into Boston be within the purview of the treaty. Discusses the matter at length. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 10. [4°. 2 pages.]

1801, August 26. Acknowledges letter of August 22. Has heard nothing further from Dallas on the subject of another prosecution against Duane. Personally, knows nothing of Clay, though hears he is well adapted to the station selected for him. C. D. Coxe can have Madeira if Pintard be decided against. Has signed Olsen's exequatur. Thinks it odd Toderstrom should proceed in Danish business, knowing Olsen is present. Extraordinary steps taken by Consul Eaton. The powder and ball requested by the Dey should be shipped, however. Desires information for an answer to Mr. Starke. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 10*a*. [4°. 2 pages.]

1801, August 27. Yesterday sent by Dr. Bache a packet received by the last mail. Time saved by private opportunities. Thornton again writes and compels the question to be met, viz., Is the British treaty operative against French ships with prizes, as well as those of other nations, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 11. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, September 11. Incloses the delayed dispatch from France and sundry letters requiring answers. Is better of the complaint contracted at Monticello. Will take up the instructions to Mr. Livingston; would like to know how far he is in readiness for embarking and when the Boston will sail. Bishop Madison and Dr. Jones desire their respects. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 13. [4°. 2 pages.]

1801, September 16. Acknowledges packet and letters of September 11 and 12. Murray's suspicions appear too harsh. This may be consequent on his situation, however. Hears nothing of the Boston frigate. Wishes no delay to be chargeable to him (M.), though he has been indisposed. Forwards letter from Dr. Thornton. He will be answered that on his resignation the President had fixed on his successor. Incloses letter from F. Preston, whom he considers a man of worth, etc., with a knowledge of Indian affairs and a fit associate of Hawkins and Wilkinson, should Pickens decline. Arrival of Mr. Davis, of New York. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 14. [4°. 2 pages.]

1801, September 17. Forwards by Mr. Davis the weekly packet received from the office of State. Incloses letter from General Gates recommending Mr. Davis. Arrival of Mr. Graham with documents for his (M.'s) signature. Incloses a very confidential letter from D. W. Clinton. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 15. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, September 23. Hopes to follow him to Washington shortly. Mr. Graham, a sensible and steady young man, has suggested enlarging the instructions to Mr. Pinckney on the subject of Louisiana. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 16. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1801, November 16. Incloses letters from Colonel Burr and Colonel Humphreys. Should the President intend making Mr. Thornton's letter the subject of discussion with the heads of Departments, should not the meeting be hastened? Series 3, vol. 8, No. 17. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, December 10 (received). Wishes the President to read the inclosed letter to Mr. King and return it immediately if approved. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 18. [4°. 1 page.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1801, December 24. The Secretaries of State and of the Treasury and the Attorney-General were appointed commissioners for settling the dispute with Georgia, by name and with their official titles annexed. On the resignation of Colonel Pickering, Mr. Marshall was appointed "in his room," no resignation of his place in the Georgia business being even implied. Although these public officers were appointed as private individuals, these commissions ceased with their official character, consequently the commissions are vacant. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 19. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, December. List of appointments made by the President during the recess of the Senate. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 20. [4°. 8 pages.]

1801, December. Salaries and compensation to the Secretary of State, his clerks, and the officers acting in connection with the Department of State. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 41. [4°. 3 pages.]

1801. Estimate of expenses for the year, foreign intercourse, treaties, prize causes, and relief of seamen. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 3. [8°. 3 pages.]

1801. Some time since stated his objections to a four years' contract for carrying the mails to Colonel Habersham; his reply thereto. Presumes the grounds urged for the pardon of Freeman were intended only for the files; if specified in the instrument the precedent might prove embarrassing. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 5. [4°. 2 pages.]

1802, February 26. Replies to a suggested change in the message. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 21. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1802, May 7, Washington. [Private.] Mr. Lear confirms the report of the imprisonment of Rogers and Davidson. Incloses copy of Le Clerc's explanation, copy of his (M.'s) letter to Pichon and one to Livingston. The state of affairs in Santo Domingo augurs a protracted warfare. The irritations between the French and the Americans arise from faults on both sides. An idea obtains in the Army that republicanism, that monarchy, must be forced, etc. Incloses a recommendation of a collector for Amboy. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 28. [4°. 2 pages.]

1802, May 11, Washington. [Private.] Has no news from Europe or the West Indies. No definite knowledge of the New York elections. Cabot accepts his mission on the proposed terms. Has received letters from Erving, showing affairs in London to be as conjectured. Incompatibility of his agency with an assessorship. In the end he relinquished his pretensions. He seems sound with King and the board. Incloses a solicitation for office. Also a letter, S. Sayre. Yrujo gives an account of a riot in Philadelphia, during which the Spanish flag was insulted. He claims due reparation to his Master's honor. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 29. [4°. 2 pages.]

1802, May 21. Extract from a letter from Mr. Eaton to James Leander Cathcart, concerning Tunisian merchantmen. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 56. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1802, June 19. Report of the Secretary of State on the charges exhibited against Governor St. Clair, by Colonel Worthington. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 35. [4°. 4 pages.]

1802, July 22, Washington. The tribute to Algiers and Morocco. Shipment of the military stores. Substitution of money for stores as tribute. Appointment of Mr. Wagner as commissioner in bankruptcy at Philadelphia. Series 6, vol. 8, No. 53. [4°. 2 pages.]

1802, July 30, New York. Recommendation of John Martin Baker, signed by Frederick Weissenfels, William Tredwell, and John Casenave. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 61. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1802, July 30, Washington. Incloses letters received of Mr. Pichon; one from Mr. Jones at Guadaloupe, and two declining commissions of bankruptcy. His (M.'s) departure has been suspended by preparations for the Mediterranean business, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 42. [4°. 2 pages.]

1802, August 10. Department of State, Washington. [FROM DANIEL BRENT.] Informs him that a duplicate commission was sent to Mr. Scott. One for Mr. Selman is made out and sent to the Treasury. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 58. [4°. 1 page.]

1802, August 11, Orange. Incloses dispatches from Mr. Livingston. Has just returned from a fatiguing tour over the mountains; bad roads and bad weather, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 43. [4°. 1 page.]

1802, August 14, Orange. Approves Simpson's course in refusing the passports required by the Emperor, and understood the instructions from the Navy Department to Commodore Morris were founded on the same principle, from which it is inferred we are no longer on terms of amity with Morocco. Mr. Brent is to forward immediately any accounts which arrive, and communicate the day of the sailing of the General Greene. Concurs in the opinion that the frigates in the Mediterranean should not be recalled, but rather increased, as McNeil's blunder may endanger our footing with Tunis. A letter from Law, district judge of Connecticut, was preceded by one from a commissioner of bankruptcy at Boston, giving Davis's objection to proceed without a notification as proposed by Law, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 44. [4°. 3 pages.]

1802, August 18, Orange. Has signified to Mr. Sumter that his resignation is accepted; he retains the good opinion of the Executive. Mr. Livingston desires a private secretary and the power to fill consul vacancies. Thinks there will be difficulty in finding a successor to Mr. Sumter who will not also be dissatisfied. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 45. [4°. 1 page.]

1802, August 20. Incloses letters in favor of Mr. Baker, who wishes to be appointed consul at Minorca, of which place he is a native, though now an American citizen. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 64. [Folio. 1 page.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1802, August 29 (received). Has received the letter from W. Hampton and F. Maury. Will tell them he considers the case falls within the State laws and that probably the governors will be led to attend to it by the correspondence between the mayor of New York and the French consul and admiral. Would it be amiss for the President to intimate to the Secretary of the Treasury, a circular letter from that Department to customs officers calling on them for their cooperation with the State authorities in enforcing the laws against the smuggling of slaves? Incloses land patents and letters from Governor McKean and James Yard; the one from Mr. Cockran gives facts and ideas worth perusal. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 47.
[4°. 2 pages.]

1802, September 1. Incloses a letter from Higginson seconding the application from Philadelphia for his (Jefferson's) patronage to a demand on the vice government of the La Plata provinces. The measure as proposed seems inadmissible on several grounds, but will be glad to have a sanction to a refusal. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 48. [4°. 1 page.]

1802, September 3. Has directed the commissions for Shore and Bloodgood to be made out. Has sent the extract from Clark's letter to General Dearborn, as requested. May it not be well to let the call for the dockets be a rule of Congress, there being no specific appropriation, and a regular call by the Executive might not be within any contingent fund. No power over the clerks of the courts held by the Executive. It seems best to postpone till the reassembling at Washington regulations with regard to the appointment of commissioners of bankruptcy. Barbary affairs. Thornton is renewing the subject of the snow Windsor His remedy lies with the courts. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 49. [4°. 2 pages.]

1802, September 7, Department of State [FROM DANIEL BRENT]. Incloses for signature a blank commission for Joseph Story as commissioner of bankruptcy. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 52.

1802, September 9 (received), Orange. Incloses the answers to the merchants of Boston and Philadelphia, also Mr. Brent's letter giving an explanation relative to the consulate at Nantes. Should Mr. Grant not go, it has been thought of for Mr. Patterson, whose appointment to l'Orient interferes with Mr. Vail's situation. Dr. Thornton and family are visiting them. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 53. [4°. 2 pages.]

1802, September 11. No answer has been sent as yet to Mr. Livingston's request to be allowed to appoint a successor to Mr. Sumter. Incloses dispatches from Mr. L. and Mr. King. Is glad to find that Otto is to share in the negotiations concerning Louisiana. Dupont's arrival is also apropos. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 54. [4°. 1 page.]

1802, September 15. Has been apprised of the application of the mayor of New York for a guard, but knowing that he (Jefferson) considers that the Federal Government have only an incidental connection with the French negroes, has waited for particulars before writing to Pichon, who is exerting himself to ship them to France. Regrets to learn that Colonel Monroe will leave Albemarle before his (Madison's) arrival. Will have a commission made out for Mr. Cary, vice Mr. Reynolds. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 55. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1802, October 18 (received). Memorandum for the President as to commissions issued from July to October, 1802. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 57. [4°. 2 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1803, February 21 (received). Incloses report as altered and acquiesced in by "Mr. L." Interprets certain articles of the British and Spanish treaties. Instructions relative to Spanish spoliations have the same implication, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 66. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1803, March 10, Washington. The answers from the governor and intendant at New Orleans to the Spanish minister's letter were received by him yesterday. The latter acknowledges he took his measures on his own judgment merely; it appears that his determination had not been changed by the first interposition of Yrujo; thinks it proper to call on Yrujo for the peremptory injunctions which he seemed willing to undertake and is sending him a note for that purpose which is approved by his colleagues. The Dey of Algiers refuses the cash payment and insists on the stores, with much irritation. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 67. [4°. 2 pages.]

1803, March 14, Washington. Hopes the letter from Yrujo, printed in the Morning's Gazette, will do good. Pichon has written a strong letter to the governor of Louisiana, summoning him on his responsibility to see that the cession of that province to France be not affected nor the amicable relations of the Republic to the United States be endangered by a perseverance of the intendant in his breach of the treaty. Has just received and deciphered the inclosed letters from Mr. Livingston. Unless a letter be lost, thinks it remarkable nothing is said of the written assurance, which was to be given on the return of the Chief Consul, that the Spanish treaty would be faithfully observed by France, etc. O'Brien says the Dey threatens war if the stores be not sent, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 68. [4°. 3 pages.]

1803, March 17, Washington. Incloses Pichon's letter to the governor of Louisiana. Voluminous communications from the Mediterranean, though of old date; also one from the Dey. Eaton dreads a refusal of his demand. Kirkpatrick writes from Malaga that the French consul there had advices from Barcelona—where a vessel lately arrived with dispatches for the French Government—giving the information of a declaration of war by the Dey of Algiers. Has written to Lear on the subject of taxing Cathcart's place at Algiers. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 69.] [4°. 2 pages.]

1803, March 21, Washington. A letter from Hulings of February 15 says the intendant had not revoked the interruption of the deposit, but had opened the market to flour and other provisions brought down the Mississippi, subject to a duty of 6 per cent, etc. Eaton writes from Tunis of the demands of the Dey. Mr. Lear is willing to take an appointment at Algiers with a salary of $4,000. Jarvis has successfully pushed the admission of our flour to the Portuguese market. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 70. [Folio. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1803, April 14. Notes on the instructions to Captain Lewis. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 70*a*. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1803, July 26, Washington. Forwards a petition and a pardon should it be needed. Knows nothing of the convict except from the petition and a letter from W. Jones. Respectable names are signed thereto. No foreign news received since his (Jefferson's) departure. Has received a visit from Mr. E. Livingston; no word as to its object. Incloses a supplemental letter from Mr. King. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 72. [4°. 2 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1803, August 13, Orange. Acknowledging letters. Matters relating to the Department of State. Miller's pardon. Brother of Jerome Bonaparte. T. Paine. Duane. Impressment of seamen. Series 6, vol. 9, No. 30. [4°. 3 pages.]

1803, August 18. Acknowledges letter of the 13th, covering papers from Governor Mercer. The act of Maryland is believed to be in the office of State. Explains the object of requiring the President's sanction thereto. The letter to Mr. Pinckney pursues the course hitherto taken. Should it appear in the same light, will he seal and forward to Mr. Wagner the letter inclosing it? Series 3, vol. 8, No. 73. [4°. 1 page.]

1803, August 20. Acknowledges various communications. The letters from Paris are important; but he sees no wish on the part of the French Government to retreat from the bargain with our ministers so much as an anxiety to secure its execution against Great Britain. Discusses at length the answers to be made to certain letters, viz, Thornton's, Pinckney's, etc. Derieux's claim. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 74. [4°. 2 pages.]

1803, August 21. Will write to Wagner for Livingston's cipher. Has that of Monroe, only, with him. Wishes him (Jefferson) to see his answer to Duane's letter, the subject of which is both delicate and important. If approved, desires it may be sent. Incloses a newspaper containing a view of the paper side of the controversy between Great Britain and France. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 76. [4°. 1 page.]

1803, August 28, Sunday. Returns Mr. Gallatin's and Mr. Barnes's letters. As Thornton speaks without the known sentiments of his Government, has thought it best not to answer his letter. Will take no action till they (Madison and Jefferson) meet. Presumes the British Government will not act with the United States in the matter of impressments of seamen. They would sign no convention without reserving this right in the narrow seas. This being inadmissible, it was doubtless with a view to preventing any arrangement. Derieux is to be paid for his actual expenses. Pederson to have the privileges requested by Olsen as his substitute. Wishes Monroe's confidential letter to these Senators put into Nicholas's hands. Contrasting this with his public letter will show that his liberality placed him in a difficult situation. Is of opinion that King's prejudice colored his remarks about Erving. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 79. [4°. 2 pages.]

1803, September 11. Incloses communications received from the Office of State. Dr. Wallace, in whose behalf both Mr. Brent and Mr. Thornton wrote, is stopping with him. Proposes to wait on him (Jefferson) shortly with a letter from his kinsman, Mr. Wythe. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 81. [4°. 1 page.]

1803, September 12. Comments on the inclosed letter from Yrujo. Thinks it a singular circumstance that three weeks after the sale of Louisiana the French ambassador should have given the answer stated. Spain could not be expected to undertake to enter such a caveat. Could it be supposed to be the result of a secret understanding with France, or even with Great Britain, the incident would assume a very serious aspect. Can only be explained by supposing Spain wished to obtain a price for her conduct and contest the extension of Louisiana to the limits she knows we have in view. It is presumed our minister in Paris will have called on the French Government to prevent any obstruction to the fulfillment of the treaty, etc. Incloses letters from Forbes on impressments. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 82. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1803, October 1 (received). Notes for the message. Alterations and additions, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 83. [4°. 4 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1803, November 5 (received). The Louisiana documents received from Mr. Gallatin sent to the press. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 84. [4°. 1 page.]

1803, November 11. Appointments made by the President during the recess of the Senate. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 85. [4°. 4 pages.]

1803, December 4. Alterations suggested in the Morocco message of December 5. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 86. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1804, April 5, Washington. Incloses Kirby's commission; also three, in blank, for Indian commissioners. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 87. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, April 9, Washington. Incloses letters from Mr. Livingston affording additional proof of the enlightenment of the French Government. Could our objects be attained by our unassisted efforts, doubtless it were better; but the friendly interposition of other governments should be accepted with respect, etc. Mr. Pinckney is apparently "teazing" the Spanish Government on the subject, which was not to be touched on without the presence or advice of Mr. Monroe. It seems evident he is spurred on from an intermediate quarter, from obvious motives. Has written to Claiborne to search the archives of the province for any documents applicable to Louisiana. Has given the subject of our title to the Perdido particular attention. Incloses exequatur for a French consul for Kentucky. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 88. [4°. 4 pages.]

1804, April 12, Washington. Incloses Mr. Pinckney's latest letters, with communications from the Mediterranean and from the commissioners under the seventh article of the British treaty. The capture by Captain Preble was apropos, but fears it may give umbrage. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 89. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, April 15, Washington. Incloses communications from Mr. Merry, both satisfactory and important. Thinks it will be proper to acknowledge the promptitude of the interposition and the disposition to cherish amicable relations between the two countries evidenced by it. Skipwith's letter shows the French Government to take no further interest in the twenty millions than as affects the sum chargeable to themselves. A letter from Moses Young inclosed at his request. His return to Madrid as yet undecided. Expects by the next mail the result of the election in New Hampshire. In Massachusetts the progress less unfavorable to Sullivan. From New York only general reports. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 90. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, April 19, Washington. Acknowledges letter of the 15th and papers returned therewith. Thinks the sending on the intercepted presents to the Porte a handsome and politic expression of respect. It is to be hoped that Preble will have already thought of it. Extravagant solicitude at the loss of the Philadelphia by our agents abroad; remarks specially on the proceeding of the consul at St. Petersburg and the result of it. An acknowledgment due; possibly only a letter from the Department of State to the Russian minister. Lengthy communications for Mr. Livingston, Mr. Pinckney, and Mr. Monroe, and other business, has prevented his taking up the case of Dr. Stevens and the intrusions west of the Mississippi, etc. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 91. [4°. 3 pages.]

1804, April 20, Department of State. Report submitted to the President on the case of Dr. Stevens, who claims reimbursement for expenses incurred during a mission to Santo Domingo in 1799. On faith of a promise from the Executive, undertook the service, in addition to his consular appointments. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 92. [4°. 26 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1804, April 24, Washington. Acknowledging letter of the 17th instant. Incloses certain papers from New Orleans. Respecting a bank charter issued by Governor Claiborne. Incloses also letters from Mr. Pinckney, Monroe, etc., and private letters. The King's relinquishment of opposition to transfer of Louisiana. The Czar's interposition at Tripoli. D'Yrujo has left Washington without taking leave of writer. Goes to London and Paris. Russel has returned the commission to Tunis. Series 6, vol. 9, No. 83. [4°. 3 pages.]

1804, April. Documents in the case of Dr. Stevens from April 2, 1802, to January 11, 1804. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 94. [Folio. 41 pages.]

Washington.

1804, June 14 (received). Extract from Mr. King's explanatory remarks on the project of John Chisholm, Blount, and others, to invade the Floridas from the territory of the United States; £50 paid Chisholm by Major Lenox for Mr. King for the disclosure of the plan. Series 3, vol. 8, No. 78. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1804, August 4, Orange. Mr. Livingston's letters are illegible press copies. At the end of the long one is something on the subject of West Florida. His disputes with the commissioners seem to have reached a ne plus ultra. Likes neither the final ground they have taken nor the general tone of his conduct. He (Mr. Livingston) is again a volunteer in diplomatic projects. The answer from the Russian chargé involves an admonition which would be useful had he modesty sufficient to understand. The Santo Domingo planter should be told that Congress alone can decide on his application. It produces a conflict between agricultural advantages and political considerations. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 3. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, August 7, (14th) Tuesday morning. Is at a loss what to make of the inclosed letter. Its purport clashes with every calculation, yet it is impossible to disregard Colonel Monroe's reliance on what he writes. Injury to the corn crop by the rainfall, 5 inches having fallen since Sunday. [On back, in Jefferson's hand, "Monroe's lre on coalition Fr. and Engl."] Series 3, vol. 9, No. 4. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, August 13. Before leaving Washington a circular letter was prepared and steps taken for giving effect to the proposed amendment as soon as the ratification of Tennessee should be notified. Will attend to his request of the manuscript communications from Mr. Livingston. Is at a loss to know by what authority he gave a part of Skipwith's salary to an additional secretary. Has signed the blank commission and credence for General Armstrong, though doubts if they reach New York before he sails. Has no personal knowledge of Mr. Dickerson; judges of him through others, especially Mr. Gallatin. Does not know whether Judge Livingston, of New York, would accept, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 5. [4°. 3 pages.]

1804, August 14. Incloses letters explaining the wish of Bishop Madison with respect to Mr. Mansfield. Will be grateful for any information proper for an answer. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 5ª. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, August 16. Incloses a late letter from Mr. Monroe. Mr. Livingston admits the debt will exceed 20,000,000 livres. Differs from him in his calculations and views on the subject. The fraud practiced in the name of Preble is a hard case. In a legal view the loss falls on the bankers. Congress alone can decide. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 6. [4°. 2 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1804, August 18. Incloses a letter from Pichon, which is a renewal of his complaints. His view of the abuse by the British ships in New York Harbor is well founded. An effective surveillance over the jurisdictional limit of the United States is impossible. Barney's letter from Paris forms another comment on the squabbles between Mr. Livingston and the commissioners. In the case of both Barney and Swan the executive can only act diplomatically. Documents showing that Barney had been paid were obtained through General Smith and forwarded to Paris with an intimation that it was just to fair claimants not to let in unfair ones for a share of the twenty millions. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 7. [4°. 3 pages.]

1804, August 21. Accounts from the Mediterranean are, on the whole, favorable. The explanations of Lear and the reenforcement under Barron will doubtless induce the Bey of Tunis to transact business with the consul-general. The ratifying act of Tennessee has been received. None as yet from Georgia. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 8. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, August 25. Will write to Claiborne and Granger on the subject of the post established through the territory held by Spain and claimed by us. May it not be best, as Calvo may reject the proposed negotiation, to provide for a simple passage of the mails without a post-office? Lear's instructions provided for the Tunisian property. The refusal of the Bey to have anything to do with him may prolong the difficulty. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 9. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, August 28. The inclosed communications from Pinckney threaten unexpected difficulties at Madrid. The conduct of the Spanish Government shows the passions of Yrujo, and the policy of removing matter for negotiating restrictions of Louisiana. All this may hasten Monroe's departure from London. Merry's letter is coincident though not the offspring of the spirit of Pitt's administration as indicated to Monroe. He considers a simple denial of the offenders as disproof of the most regular testimony, and maintains the right to impress from American vessels on the high seas, but from British vessels in our harbors. The conduct of the French frigate at Baltimore should be inquired into. Merry has shown himself to be a diplomatic pettifogger. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 10. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, September 8. Acknowledges letter of the 6th returning letters from Appleton and Savage. Expects to be at Monticello early the following week. If the inclosed letter to Pichon be approved, begs it may be sent Mr. Wagner to forward. Has thought it best to refrain from any expression as to the change of government in France or anything personal to the Emperor. This, however, can be decided on on the receipt of the original notification by Talleyrand. French irregularities in South Carolina and Georgia. Pichon signifies that the French frigates and the aversion of Mrs. P. to approach yet the scene of her misfortune render their visit uncertain. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 12. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, September 22. Incloses Mr. Merry's letter to Mr. Wagner, also from Barney and L. Harris. Mr. Wagner has been directed to forward all information relating to Barney's claim to Skipwith. A patronage of individual claims is to be deprecated. Barney's claim to citizenship is probably sound, though how far it may have been suspended by his temporary relations or special transactions is a question for the judicial rather than the executive, etc. Harris's letter is a further proof of the kindness of the Emperor Alexander. Hopes there is no blending of a desire to draw the United States into the politics of Russia. Dr. Winston may be able to spare laborers to him (Jefferson) when he reaches Hanover. Series 3, vol. 6, No. 18. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, October 2, Orange. Returns to the Department of State the inclosed papers, retaining the personal letter from Mr. Livingston. According to his recollection, an explanation of the act of Congress so offensive to Spain was communicated to Yrujo. Should this not be the case, however, and Mr. Pinckney be the only one communicated with and consequently not known to the Spanish Government or even to the minister, it should be done. Jackson has given publicity to the affair between him and Yrujo, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 14. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, October 5. [FROM JACOB WAGNER.] Queries the constitutionality of a second temporary commission for Mr. Chambers. Jefferson's opinion thereon. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 16. [8°. 1 page.]

1804, October 15 (received). Suggests alterations in a letter written by Jefferson [indorsed by him, "My l're of Oct. 15, to Gelston."] Series 3, vol. 9, No. 1. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, October 23 (received). Comments on a bill for the clearance of armed vessels. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 2. [Folio. 1 page.]

1804, October 25 (received). Notes for the Message. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 19. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1805, January 1 (received). List of persons suitable for the office of Attorney-General. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 19*a*. [Scrap of paper.]

1805, January 15. [FROM JACOB WAGNER.] Has learned from the French minister that the proper style of addressing Jerome Bonaparte is Monsieur and Sir. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 20. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, January 31, Department of State. Incloses documents and papers relative to complaints against arming merchant ships or vessels of the United States from the British envoy and the chargé d'affaires of France. Series 3, vol. 9, Nos. 21–25. [4°. 7 pages.]

1805, February 8 (received). Notes for the inaugural speech. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 17. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, February 21 (received). Notes for the inaugural speech. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 26. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1805, March 17. Incloses two letters from Monroe, also one from Armstrong, who, he is glad to find, understands the language in which the honorable policy of this country should be expressed. Has obeyed Governor Claiborne's wish in taxing him (Jefferson) with a long communication which the attacks of his political adversaries made necessary. Fowler, of Kentucky, has shown him letters from James Brown and Bradford, the editor, concurring in denouncing Claiborne's want of talent, etc. If he be not removed, it is thought the Federal party will gain the upper hand. Inclosed is Barnes's letter, showing that Cathalan has been unjustly attacked. Lee has written on the same subject. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 27. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, March 27, Washington. Discusses at length the possibility of Spain yielding her claims to West Florida. Is glad to find Talleyrand's letter is silent as to the west boundary, though Monroe's letter expressly named the Rio Bravo as the limit of our claim. Importance of an arrangement with Spain opening the Mobile to our trade is urged in instructions to Monroe. Incloses letters from Cathalan, Monroe, C. Pinckney, Jarvis, and Dr. Lattimore, and from the forger of drafts in Preble's name. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 28. [4°. 3 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1805, April 1, Washington. Has received a letter from Mr. Tomkins, declining the appointment as successor to Judge Hobart. Barbarity of the decree of Ferrand, commanding at Santo Domingo. It will, of course, be made the subject of proper representation to the French Government, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 29. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, April 5, Washington. On the previous day had a conversation with Turreau on the subject of Ferrand's decree. Promises to interpose as requested. He regretted that Logan's motion to prohibit the trade with St. Domingo had not succeeded, since the blacks, through American supplies, had been enabled to advance against Ferrand; hence his violence. Incloses copy of the edict. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 30. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, May 29, Department of State. Circular to marshals, enjoining the preservation of peace in the ports and harbors of the United States. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 31. [Print. 4°. 1 page.]

1805, May 29, Department of State. Circulars to the governors of the several States, enjoining the preservation of peace in the harbors of the United States. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 32. [Print. 4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1805, July 22, Washington. Incloses Mr. Erving's letters. Is detained in town by the serious illness of Mrs. Madison. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 33. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, July 24, Washington. A consultation of Drs. Winn and Elzey on the situation of Mrs. Madison ended in the opinion that an operation on her knee was necessary. Will set out at once for Philadelphia under the care of Dr. Physic. Can form no idea of the length of time they may be obliged to stay in that city. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 34. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, August 2, Philadelphia. Passed Dutton on the road and received of him the dispatches from Monroe and Pinckney. The awkward termination of the business at Madrid, especially if nothing alleviates it at Paris, involves serious questions. After the parade of a mission extraordinary, a haughty refusal of our overtures, and a withdrawal of a stipulated provision for claims admitted to be just, appeals to the honor and sensibility of the country. Discusses Spanish affairs at length. Bowdoin might be instructed to propose a suspension of the territorial questions, the deposit, and French spoliations, on condition that those points be yielded, with an incorporation of the convention of 1802, with a provision for the subsequent claims, etc. A letter from C. P. gives more instances of insults from British commanders. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 39. [4°. 4 pages.]

1805, August 9, Philadelphia. Selects the papers of the ship New Jersey to enable him to decide the question whether, in the claims under the French convention, insurers stand in the shoes of the insured. The printed memorial by Dupont de Nemours deserves to be read as a chef d'œuvre of the kind. Discusses the subject at length. Bowdoin's arrival at Santander. The wine, etc., was sent into Halifax by General Wentworth with hostile intentions. The duties and other charges make a debt of honor, and admit no hesitation as to payment. Mrs. Madison's improvement. An extreme drought is prevailing. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 40. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, August 20, Philadelphia. Pinckney's letters confirm the idea that Spain, emboldened by France, is speculating on the presumed aversion of this country to war. Yrujo's duplicity. Incloses letter from Turreau. Discusses the Spanish situation and our best mode of dealing therewith. Pennsylvania documents. The Aurora gives a true account of the yellow fever. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 41. [4°. 4 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1805, September 1, Philadelphia. Agrees with him in his estimate of Turreau's letter as a reprehensible intrusion. Submitted it and the proposed reply to General Smith, who, while sensible of its improper tone, thinks it may arise from a misjudged precaution against offending France. Suggests some alterations, softening the answer. The result of reflection on Spanish affairs is the virtue of some mutual security for the friendship of Great Britain, but the great difficulty of obtaining it. Yellow fever limited, but very deadly. Moreau visited by a crowd; declined a public dinner. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 42.
[4°. 2 pages.]

1805, September 14, Gray's, near Philadelphia. Incloses, among other communications, a letter from Monroe in Paris, who appears from Irving's letter to have arrived at London the end of July. Armstrong has moderated his former advice as to Spain. The efficacy of an embargo can not be doubted. Incloses samples of wheat from different countries given him by the Marquis d'Yrujo to be forwarded. Mr. and Mrs. Merry are stopped on the Lancaster road by the illness of the latter. Her maid was so ill that yellow fever was suspected. Virulence of yellow fever in the city. Discusses at length the subject of neutral rights. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 43.
[4°. 3 pages.]

Washington.

1805, September 30, Gray's. Is unable to obey the summons for the meeting of the heads of departments fixed for October 4, on account of Mrs. Madison's indisposition. Spread of yellow fever in Philadelphia. Is of opinion that we should go as far into the subject of an eventual coalition with Great Britain, in the war, as will not preclude us from an intermediate adjustment, if attainable, with Spain. Discusses Spanish affairs. The merchants much alarmed at the decisions in Great Britain against their trade. Several millions of property are afloat, subject to capture under the doctrine now in force. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 46. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, October 5, Gray's. The return of Mrs. Madison's ailment makes it well-nigh impossible for him to leave her for the meeting of the heads of departments in Washington. If his presence, however, is essential will arrange matters for her comfort, and start. Has been engaged on the work of trying to establish the heresy of the British doctrine as to neutral rights. Cathcart is a candidate for a factorship among the Indians. Believes him to be honest and capable. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 47. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, October 16, Gray's. Is still detained by the illness of Mrs. Madison, and is grateful for the indulgent manner in which his absence is regarded. Gives his opinions on European questons in writing. Armstrong has been informed that the opinion here is that insurers stand in the shoes of the insured under the convention. Incloses a letter from Truxtun. Advisability of having guardians of our affairs in the West Indies, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 48. [4°. 4 pages.]

1805, October 20, Philadelphia. The decrease of yellow fever in Philadelphia has enabled him to place Mrs. Madison in a situation where it would be possible to leave her. Will therefore set out for Washington without delay. Has given a letter of introduction to Dr. Parke and his daughter. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 49. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, November 24 and 27 (received). Alterations suggested in the message. Series 3, vol. 9, Nos. 51 and 51*a*. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, November 28 (received). Alterations suggested in the resolutions relating to Spain. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 51*b*.

1806, March 16, Washington. The opinion of the Attorney-General against the decision of the Louisiana commissioners establishes its illegality. As it had apparently no corrupt source, it will be sufficient to transmit the reasons and opinion, sanctioned by the President, rather than remove the commissioners. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 53. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, April 14 (received). [FROM J. WAGNER.] The Piankeshaw treaty sent to Mr. Madison. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 54. [½ page.]

Monticello.

[1806], May 10. Begs that the inclosed letter, if approved, may be sealed and sent to the post-office [indorsed by Jefferson "answer to Prevost, and expressing expectation he will continue in his post till a successor appointed"]. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 54*a*. [Scrap of paper.]

1806, May 12, Washington. Mr. Pinkney sails from Baltimore on the 18th; he is collecting information, and the documents he is to take with him, provisional as well as positive, must be hurried on. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 55. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, May 17 (received), Washington. The communications forwarded by Mr. Smith will show that the frigates from the Mediterranean can not be expected till autumn. So the plan of sending Mellimelli in the Chesapeake is frustrated. The xebec has been sold at Malta. Proposes to send a small vessel instead. Incloses Barlow's letter. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 56. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, May 22 (received), Washington. The documents for London and the dispatches from Baltimore arrived in time for Mr. Pinckney's embarkation. Incloses letters from Monroe of March 31 and April 3. Has seen in English paper the arrival of Mr. Armstrong and suite in Paris, en route for Amsterdam, where he would embark for America. Should this be true, it is difficult to explain. If the state of his health or the attack on his character should have led to it, the consideration of Mr. Bowdoin's presence in Paris would lessen the inconvenience of his leaving. Mr. Gallatin sets out on a western trip. It occurs to him that Armstrong's journey to The Hague may refer to a charge against the Batavian government for French spoliations. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 57. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, May 26, Washington. Refers him to Mr. Smith for the result of the consultation on the Mediterranean arrangements. Incloses letters from Armstrong, Bowdoin, Lee, and Forbes. Is glad to find that the idea of indemnities has taken such root and that there is no more repugnance to a disincumbrance of "W. F." of post-route grants. Incloses letter from Mr. Merry on the intended blockade of the German rivers. Gives the substance of Mr. Fox's letter, sent by Mr. Merry, concerning the impatience for an answer to Mr. Monroe's complaints, arising in the United States. The delay was caused by the necessary investigations. Instructs Mr. Merry to assure the Government of the good will of the King and his desire that all causes of dispute may be removed, etc. This step by Mr. Fox was doubtless stimulated by the loss of the German market and the fear that we may close the door on British manufactures. The English papers republish the propositions of Gregg, General Smith, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 58. [4°. 4 pages.]

1806, May 28, Washington. Acknowledges letter inclosing those of P. Edwards and Mr. Gallatin. Subpœnas have been served on General Dearborn, Mr. Smith, and himself. Mr. Wagner, Dr. Thornton, Mr. Duncanson, and Mr. Bradley, of Vermont, are on the list of witnesses. It is perhaps fortunate that so "aggregate a blow" has been dealt the Administration, as it clearly shows the malice of the proceeding and the inconvenience to public business resulting from the attendance of all the heads of departments. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 59. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1806, July 8. Memorandum as to the refusal of the House of Representatives to make appropriations for certain Indian treaties. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 62. [Scrap of paper.]

Monticello.

1806, July 25, Washington. Incloses letter from the mayor of New York, showing that coercion only will rid us of the Tunisians in revolt against Mellimelli. Has replied that they must be sent to Boston. Arrangements for the conveyance of the presents to the Bey. The reference to Miranda in Armstrong's letter was drawn up under Talleyrand's direction. Would like Lear's dispatches before his (Madison's) departure. Mr. Fox's letter to Merry on the subject of Pierce shows a desire to repress the hostility resulting from the murder. He speaks of it as having taken place in New York. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 64. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, July 25, Washington. Incloses copy of the suggestions added to his letter of the previous day to the mayor of New York. In giving his (Jefferson's) sanction to the use of legal force was governed by his former action in sending the Tunisians on board the Franklin, by the ambassador's requisition, supported by Cathcart's letter to Mr. Clinton alone. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 65. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, July 28, Washington. Incloses Mr. Lear's letter, received from Commodore Rodgers, of the Essex. Arrived the previous day. Rodgers's general view of Mediterranean affairs is as favorable as Lear's. Cathcart writes that Mellimelli had accepted reimbursement of the cost of the supernumerary articles, which has restored his good humor, etc. Sees by the newspapers that Colonel Smith has been found not guilty. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 66. [4°. 3 pages.]

1806, August 4, Washington. Incloses letters from Cathcart and Mellimelli, which explain the perplexing determination of the latter respecting the Franklin. Cathcart has been instructed to charter a vessel at Boston. Has not yet heard from the mayor of New York on the subject of the refractory Tunisians. P. Edwards's letter throws light on the state of things at New York connected with the trials of "S. and O." Edwards's attachment to the Administration. Has received a letter from Sanford giving the result of the trials. Has desired of him a statement showing the grounds on which the jury found for explanation to our foreign ministers. Incloses recommendations of G. Taylor to be consul at St. Francis. Discusses the expediency of this at present and Turreau's letter on the Santo Domingo trade. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 67. [4°. 4 pages.]

1806, August 15, Orange. Left Washington on the 6th. Has received nothing from the office since the day before yesterday. Concludes he (Jefferson) was at that time in Bedford. Incloses papers transmitted by Mr. Wagner, among them letters from Cathcart and the mayor of New York explaining the situation of the refractory Tunisians. If the answer to the mayor be approved, desires it to be sent to Mr. Wagner. Acknowledges his letter of the 2d. Suggests alteration in the answer to the King of Wurtemberg. Incloses letter from Dr. Thornton showing his perturbation at some of Mr. Latrobe's operations. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 68. [4°. 2 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1806, August 30, Sunday. Incloses letter from the district attorney of New York, asking if Thomas Lewis, of the Leander, is to be brought to trial. Has answered in the affirmative, and if approved, desires it may be sent from Monticello. Sees no reason for discussing this indictment any more than in the case of Ogden after Smith's acquittal. It seems preposterous to punish a subordinate offender after a verdict in favor of the principals. Morales's conduct shows so many marks of an adventurer that it is a question whether a suspension of his exequatur ought not to be substituted for an admonition. A formal answer is unnecessary to Mr. Merry's complaint involving topics now under discussion and on which the sentiments of the Government are well known. An inquiry to vindicate the collector should be undertaken, however. Hopes to be at Monticello shortly. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 69.
[4°. 2 pages.]

1806, September 4 (received), Orange. Acknowledges letter of the 28th, and forwards communications from Washington. Extraordinary freaks of Mellimelli. Has written Mr. Wagner to prevent his visiting them (Jefferson and Madison), and to give Lear and other functionaries at Tunis an explanation of the adventure. Is still uncertain as to the time of his trip to Monticello. Effects of the drought on the tobacco and corn crops. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 70. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, September 17. Acknowledges letter and inclosures. Has adopted the suggested amendment to the letter to Turreau. He may fairly be told that no appropriation has such an object, because the legislatures are not presumed to have contemplated it; particularly taking into view the line of neutrality hitherto pursued. It will not be amiss, however, to avoid narrowing the scope of the appropriations to foreign intercourse, etc. May not the vice-consulate at Cadiz or the consulate at St. Lucar be a more eligible berth for Mr. Hackly than St. Andres. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 72. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, September 22 (received). Incloses a letter from Turreau requesting a loan to be applied to the equipment of the damaged ships of war in our ports. Has sketched an answer for his (Jefferson's) consideration. Thinks it necessary to be explicit in the refusal, as it may be followed by other requests of greater extent. Sees by letters from Norfolk to Mr. Gallatin that the use of the navy-yard had been offered for the repair of a British frigate. Should not the navy agent be instructed not to repeat such invitation, and to have this for an answer to any complaint of partiality which may come from a French quarter? Series 3, vol. 9, No. 71. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1806, October 6 (received). [FROM J. WAGNER.] Incloses letter for Turreau on the subject of l'Impetueux, and requests it may be sent, if approved. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 73. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, October 30 (received). Cites the act of February 28, 1795, as to the use of the military in cases of insurrections. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 74. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, November 16 and 27 (received). Notes for the message. Series 3, vol. 9, Nos. 75 and 76. [4°. 8 pages.]

1806, November 29 (received). Notes for the message. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 78. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1807, January 4 (received). Memorandum as to a counter post to Kingston. Is of opinion the State of New York should give attention to such a call from its exposed citizens. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 101. [Scrap of paper.]

1807, April 13, Washington. Incloses letter from Messrs. Monroe and Pinkney, also one from Turreau, the scope of which is manifestly improper and can not have been founded on instructions from his Government. Discusses the colonial article of the British treaty and its effect on our commerce. Fears the number of British seamen may be rather more than less than at first estimated. Incloses Mr. Gallatin's letter, etc., on the subject. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 79. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, April 17, Washington. Acknowledges letter of the 14th. Incloses printed copies of certain acts of Congress and a list of all the acts. The letter from Clarke Mead, etc., relating to the witnesses against White, proceeds on a mistake. The legal allowance was 50 cents a day, but was raised to 5 cents a mile, equal to $2 per day. Will hint this to Mr. Rodney. The objection arising from Mr. Gallatin's estimate of British seamen in our service to the idea of forbearing the use of them has led him (Madison) to think of some modifications which may lead Great Britain to an adjustment. Discusses the subject at length. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 77. [4°. 3 pages.]

1807, April 20, Washington. Incloses letters from Consul Harris, the consul at Santiago de Cuba, and the answer to inquiries as to the operation of the colonial article of the treaty of December 31 from Colonel Smith. Harris writes more as a Russian than an American, and takes the tone of a minister plenipotentiary in his answer to the communications of the foreign office. Maurice's letter suggests anew the value of a consular agency at Santo Domingo. He gives a favorable account of the disposition of the Spanish authorities in Cuba. Hopes Turreau's letter to Ferrand will correct the abuse of the decree of November 21. The development of Colonel Smith might have been expected from the scope of the second article. Is perplexed as to instructions to be given to our commissioners. It may be necessary to limit the treaty to impressments. Is preparing an ultimatum as to the disuse of British seamen, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 80. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, April 24, Washington. Acknowledges letter of the 21st, and letters returned. He (Madison) had not then received the last from Mr. Gallatin and himself on the modified proposal to disuse British seamen. Will await his (Jefferson's) next before concluding the instructions which are to go by the Washington. The accounts from Bermuda that the difficulty which suspends the treaty is becoming a pretext with both courts and cruisers for worrying our commerce. Probable effect on our affairs should the revolution take place in the British cabinet. Incloses a pamphlet by the author of War in Disguise—also the trial of Sir H. Popham, which discloses some political secrets. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 81. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, April 27, Washington. Arrival of Mr. Petry with the inclosed letter from General Turreau. The request contained therein is not consistent with the understanding which regulated the former compliances. Necessity is pleaded, and assurance is given that it will be the last. The bills being in the form inclosed, will be at shorter sight and drawn on funds lying at Paris in the name of Beaujoin. Mr. Gallatin drops you a line on the subject. Incloses several letters. That from the consul at Curaçao explains the policy of the British Government in protecting Spanish America against oriental manufactures passing through our ports. The object in taking possession of the island is to secure the market to our trade in those articles. The revolution in the British cabinet was taking effect and Lord Melville was at the head of the admiralty. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 82. [4°. 2 pages.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1807, May 4, Washington. By the last mail received the note fixing the time of his (Jefferson's) return. The Washington appears ready for departure, though a further delay would be better for complete preparation. The dispatches could have been ready some time since, but the lights thrown on the treaty by the gentlemen consulted, and the flaws revealed on closer inspection, made the task more tedious. Discusses certain articles of the British treaty. Is apprehensive that nothing will be done as to impressments. Will await his return and determination as to how far it may be admissible to authorize an agreement not to employ British seamen, within certain limits. Mr. Gallatin joins in the belief that the crisis calls for the concession of not employing any who have been less than two years in our service. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 83.
[4°. 3 pages.]

1807, June 29 (received). Draft of a proclamation as to impressments, right of search, etc. A United States frigate attacked in our waters. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 84. [4°. 3 pages.]

Monticello.

1807, August 8 (received). The late arrival of the post forced him to decide on his (Jefferson's) letter to the governor. Could consult neither the law nor the proclamation touching the method to be pursued in our intercourse with the British squadron. Decatur's suspension of the flags of truce may cause a collision with General Dearborn. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 85. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, August 15 (received). The late arrival of the post made it impossible for him to comply with his request as to the letters to "Gov. C. and Gen. D." Now, however, they await the downward mail. The only remark he has to make on that to Governor C. is that in commenting on the rule of expounding laws, etc. More latitude results from the expressions used than he (Madison) would have assumed. Incloses letter from Mr. Detorest as to a consul at Mogadore. Has written to the State Department for a precise account of the obstruction complained of by Foronda. With respect to his remonstrance as to Miranda, questions the advisability of going into the history of Spanish maneuvers in the Western country, or a very stunning answer might be given. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 86.
[4°. 3 pages.]

1807, August 15 (received). The bearer is a gentleman well recommended for a public agency at Martinique. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 87. [Folio. 2 pages.]

1807, August 16. Acknowledges the receipt of Dayton's letter and the draft of answer. Discusses the former and suggests alterations in the latter; the first paragraph might be regarded as either an approbation of the conduct of the court if made indiscriminate, or a covered animadversion on its indulgence to Colonel Burr. Fails to understand what is meant by the passage saying that the Secretary of State has been applied to for an account of the communication made by General Wilkinson, which document he supposes to be in the hands of the Attorney-General. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 88. [4°. 4 pages.]

1807, August 16 (received). Has just received Dayton's letter, which is inclosed. Also one from Foronda and a commission for Robinson. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 89. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, August 19. Acknowledges letter of the 18th. Captain Saunders, alluded to in Mr. Erskine's communications, being in the land service and the alleged enlistment of British deserters being into the same, will send the information to General Dearborn and will inform Mr. E. that alien deserters will not be permitted to enlist either into the land or sea service. Await his approval, however, and will signify then to the Secretary of

MADISON, JAMES.

War that recruiting officers must be instructed accordingly. Incloses his (Madison's) answer to Dayton. Mrs. Madison and himself hope to visit Monticello in the autumn. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 90. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, August 31. Incloses letter and documents from Mr. Brent relating to our affairs with Algiers. Would it be better to soothe the dey with a part of the articles—say, $20 or $30 worth—or await information from Mr. Lear? The tranquil state in the Chesapeake would justify the discontinuance of the daily mail, but deprecates any change. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 91. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, September 3. The intelligence from England shows that an arrangement had been made probably in July, before the arrival of Purviance, whether an informal, provisional, or a positive convention is uncertain. In any event, it must have included our object with respect to impressments, since instructions of March 18, given after the receipt of the treaty, were in the hands of the ministers. This is confirmed by Rose's reply to Lord Howick. It is possible that an appearance of an "approximation of France" to the United States may have reenforced the impulse given to the British cabinet by events on the Continent, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 92. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, September 18 and 19. Incloses for perusal and correction an answer to Mr. Erskine's letter, also one from Madrid. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 94. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, September 20. Forwards letters from the legation in London. The British Government renounces the pretension to search ships of war for deserters, but employs words which qualify the renunciation. Canning's note shows irritation and strengthens the belief that he had Berkeley's account of the matter. The execution of the fourth seaman and the insulting trial at Halifax indicates that Berkeley is in little dread of his superior's resentment. Besides the humiliation of restoring a British subject, he fears the effect on the seamen generally. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 95. [4°. 3 pages.]

1807, September 21. Whether the "B. decree is to be renounced" to Congress must depend on the intermediate accounts from London. If nothing changes the posture of things with Spain very serious questions will arise with respect to that country. Asks if it would not be proper for Smith to publish in Canning's words, without quoting them, the disavowal of the pretension to search ships of war, and promising satisfaction for the attack on the Chesapeake. Sends a large bundle from the collector of Passamaquoddy. His letter and memorial will enable him to understand his case. Wishes Congress would indemnify the sufferer and refer to the Executive a demand of reimbursement from the British Government. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 96. [4°. 3 pages.]

1807, September 22. Has forwarded the notes to the several postmasters. The inclosed letter from Pleasanton mentions the terms on which the missionary to Batavia is engaged. The case of the Indefatigable and crew may be laid before Congress. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 97. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1807, November 10 (received). Notes for the Tripoline treaty. Series 3, vol. 9, Nos. 99 and 100. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, February 25. Advisability of sending a message communicating Pinkney's and Armstrong's letters to aid Congress in appreciating our foreign relations and of influencing their measures of precaution. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 102. [4°. 1 page.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1808, March 15 (received). Skipwith failed to communicate the Milan decree, its only authentication being in the Madrid Gazette and the reference in the Spanish decree. It can not be said that all ports are forbidden to neutrals save their own. The British decrees permit a trade with enemy colonies not forbidden by mother countries. The ports of neutrals are open to each other, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 103.
[4°. 1 page.]

1808, March 24 (received). Notes for the message on sites for defenses of rivers and harbors. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 105.
[4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1808, May 11, Captain Winston's. Was requested by Mr. E. Livingston to make a representation to the Executive on the subject of the Batture. Discusses the case at length. Was stopped by the high waters of the North River, which he crossed in a boat. Is at present rain bound. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 106.
[4°. 2 pages.]

1808, May 15. Reached home on Friday. Was obliged to take his carriage to pieces and swim his horses over Porter's mill pond. Incloses letters from Armstrong, Pinkney, and Harris. Has noted the proposed answer to Turreau. Supposes Smith and "B." may be told that as dispatches for the Mediterranean will go in the vessel for Algiers, their request could not be complied with, etc. The Santo Domingo trade has always been contrary to law, so the reply to Lewis must be according to this fact. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 107.
[4°. 2 pages.]

Monticello.

1808, May 16. Not having a key to the mail, had a link in the chain taken off. Hence it goes open. Erving's letters are inclosed, but are of old date. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 108.
[4°. 1 page.]

1808, May 31. Incloses Mr. Vowle's letter concerning Mr. Dunbar. Believes they are both reputable characters, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 110. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, June 2 (received), Orange. Acknowledges letter of the previous day by the rider. His (Jefferson's) view of the Detroit case agrees with his own, and wonders it should have escaped Woodward's sagacity. The difference in Turreau's letter may be ascribed to communications received from his Government by a consul lately returned from France. Accounts for the miserable crops by the Hessian fly. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 111.
[4°. 2 pages.]

1808, July 29. Mr. Dade, the bearer, has just handed him the inclosed. He has been told that the vacancy caused by Mr. Maury's resignation has been filled. He is, however, bent on entering the military service. Discusses the transfer of Spanish America to Bonaparte and its effect upon our affairs. The more South America becomes the bone of contention the more important the United States should be considered. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 114. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, July 31, Montpelier. Acknowledges letter of the 29th. Thinks the best conveyance for "Mr. S."[hort] will be a small public vessel. It appears desirable for him to proceed directly to St. Petersburg. Should he take Paris on the way, concealment will be difficult. Discusses the best plans to be pursued by "Mr. S." Will attend to the hint as to Reeve's letter to "Gov. C." Series 3, vol. 9, No. 115.

MADISON, JAMES.

1808, August 8. The letter respecting the Leonidas was returned with other papers. Desires information of one Randolph, whose letter is inclosed. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 116. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, August 7, Montpelier. Returns letters from Randolph and Riddle. The complaint of the latter has been also made by others. Was not aware that any of them save McKinley were so respectable. McKinley was answered verbally through his friend, Mr. Jackson, but not as is stated. Prentice's case was alone referred to, and the special reason mentioned against turning the discretion vested in the Department of State into a source of influence over the press, instead of guarding against the abuse, real or apparent, to which it is liable by subjecting it to fixed rules, etc. Inclose the Enquirer giving a full view of Spanish affairs. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 117. [4°. 3 pages.]

1808, August 10, Montpelier. Returns letters from Sullivan and Ishomel with the proposed answer to the former. The questions arising therefrom are difficult, and are increased by the spirit which haunts the governor. His letter furnishes the inference, which is confirmed by the positive violations of the embargo, stated by Ishomel. Other inconsistencies are to be found in it. Thinks it better to preserve friendly feelings rather than rigidly enforce the embargo laws. Still they must be enforced, and if other means can not be used the consequences of suspending the permits must be risked. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 118. [4°. 4 pages.]

1808, August 14, Montpelier. Forwards Turreau's letter, inclosing one to him from Mr. Gallatin. Discusses the situation as to the embargo. As the interview with Canning was probably sought by Pinckney, is indisposed to hope much from it, especially as the Spanish news would have had its usual effect on such a cabinet. English affairs as set forth by the Morning Chronicle. The Courier publishes Rose's ultimatum. Discusses the European situation. Has done nothing as to Mecheaux. Suggestions as to the route of the mail rider by which he and Jefferson may be taken in. Hopes to visit Monticello. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 119. [4°. 6 pages.]

1808, August 17, Montpelier. Mr. Short failed to seize his ideas as to the concealment of his mission. He was also mistaken in supposing he was to go in one of the smallest vessels. The Wasp or Hornet is more proper for a voyage to the Baltic at so late a season. Thinks the British Parliament is about to open a trade between her colonies and Europe south of Cape Finisterre. The effect on American commerce should Spain revoke her decrees, etc. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 121. [4°. 3 pages.]

1808, August 20, Montpelier. Returns his drafts of an answer to the Philadelphia memorials, with a few alterations indicated. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 122. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, August 21, Sunday afternoon. Returns letters by the rider. Hopes to set out for Monticello shortly. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 123. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, September 4. Through some mistake Friday's mail from Milton was delayed. Incloses Pinckney's letter, which has a much better "flavor" than his preceding one. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 124. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, September 5, Department of State. [FROM GRAHAM.] Incloses three letters recently received at the office. The commissions have been issued to Mr. Pooler and Mr. Sullivan. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 137. [4°. 1 page.]

MADISON, JAMES.

1808, September 7, Montpelier. Returns Mr. Short's letter with the addresses from Boston and the proposed answer; also for Mr. Graham drafts of instructions for Mr. Short and a letter to Harris. Will try to have those for Armstrong and Pinckney ready for the return mail. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 125. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, September 14, Montpelier. Returns letters from Short and Armstrong. His (Jefferson's) observations on the latter place the subject in the true light. If the letter to him is the sole communication, it is an example from that quarter of obscurity resulting from a labored brevity. The occupation of the Floridas is, however, certainly the "advice" alluded to. Much depends on the success of the embargo. The New England petitions doubtless have had great effect. That from Rowley merits only silent contempt. Is perplexed as to what pecuniary arrangements in the case of Mr. Short, as they would lead to disclosures, etc. Turreau's letter seems intended more for his own Government than for this. On the return of the rider will inform him not to make another trip to Fredericksburg. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 126. [4°. 4 pages.]

1808, September 18, Montpelier. Incloses letters from Armstrong and Irvine. The letters of the former leave him at a loss as to the return of the St. Michael. From the permission for her to go to France from Falmouth fears that is to be her course. Has a letter from Baker, dated Bordeaux, June 25th, which gives no information of a public nature. This delay is truly mortifying. "A. G." must at length have been convinced by Champagny's letter that his advice to seize the Floridas was not founded as he supposed. The explanation probably refers to the guaranty by Joseph of the Spanish colonies. Is sorry to find that Marat's (?) dispatches to Turreau were put under Irvine's cover to the Department of State. The official seal of a neutral country should not conceal belligerent property. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 127. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, September 20, Montpelier. Thinks the arrogant tone of Turreau's letter of August 31 should not pass unnoticed. Incloses draft of an answer for approval. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 128. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, September 21, Montpelier. Construction of the embargo law. Soderstrom's course impertinent. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 129. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, September 25, Montpelier. Acknowledges letter by Mr. Chesolm. Hopes for his and Mrs. Barlow's company at dinner on Wednesday. Incloses a letter from Mr. Hackley and a Spanish document confirming the victory over Dupont. Graham's letter mentions the disaster at the Capitol. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 130. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, September 26, Montpelier. Incloses the National Gazette of Friday, giving the election in Vermont; also Latrobe's explanation of the accident in the Capitol. The letters from Graham and "Mr. S." show the dilatory footing on which the arrangements for the ship Union rest. This is of less importance, as the return of the St. Michael and the Hope will have taken place probably. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 131. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1808, October 30, Sunday. Returns the passage of the message wanted by the President. Was prevented by the arrival of company from remodeling the first and second paragraphs. Retains Mr. Gallatin's notes. Series 3, vol. 9, No. 132. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, November. Notes for the message. Series 3, vol. 9, Nos. 133, 134, and 135. [4°. 9 pages.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1801, August 31, Washington. Learns from dispatches received by Captain Rodgers that France does not seem disposed to accept the terms of ratification proposed by us. Fearing indemnity may be claimed at some future day, they desire all the objects of the second article be abandoned by both parties. Mr. Murray, however, does not feel authorized to subscribe to such an act. It is impossible to ascertain the object of the First Consul, or how the negotiations will terminate. Discusses plans, should the exchange take place, as to the sailing of the Boston, Mr. Livingston's movements, etc. Asks his advice as to the propriety of additional buildings in the navy-yard and barracks. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 137. [4°. 4 pages.]

1801, September 4, Washington. Does not think any of the $20,000 fund can be spared for the purpose mentioned in his (Jefferson's) letter of August 29. Colonel Burrows's letter satisfied him that this fund would borrow rather than lend in order to complete the barracks. Suspects that the First Consul is not cordially disposed to ratify the treaty. Is led to this opinion by the change in the political views of France. Discusses the situation. Thinks the Boston should go to the Mediterranean without the minister, so soon as she is ready for sea. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 138. [4°. 5 pages.]

1803, July 6, Navy Department. Incloses for signature twelve blank commissions, needed for officers who have been appointed but not properly commissioned. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 55. [4°. 1 page.]

1803, July 6, Navy Department. Presents the names of the following gentlemen to be midshipmen, viz: Gilbert H. Smith, Francis B. Whiting, De P. Ramsey, and Charles Jones. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 56. [4°. 1 page.]

1803, July 14, Navy Department. Incloses a blank warrant, for signature, for Joseph Nicholson to be midshipman. Is the son of Captain Nicholson, of Boston. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 57.
[4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1803, September 4, Baltimore. Finds from General Dearborn's letter that the War Department can not supply the gun carriages, nor are there artificers belonging to that Department. He himself has attended to the matter. Thinks strong measures must be taken to check the impressments of our citizens by the British. Incloses a letter from Commodore Morris. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 68. [4°. 3 pages.]

1803, September 10, Baltimore. Discusses the vessel which will be best suited for carrying the ratification of the treaty and the stock to France. Is in correspondence with General Dearborn respecting the gun carriages, and everything, apparently, is in good train. Regrets to hear of yellow fever in Alexandria. Both Washington and Georgetown are very sickly. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 67. [4°. 5 pages.]

1803, October 4, Baltimore. Is detained by the illness of his children, but will leave for Washington on the first appearance of recovery. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 69.
[Folio. 2 pages.]

1803, December 28, Navy Department. Incloses blank warrants for signature for the following gentlemen, viz: Jacquelin Harvie, John Lyon, Richard Wilson, Charles Blake, Henry Thomas, B. F. Rittenhouse, Alex. S. Dexter, Edward Winslow, Thomas Shields, and Andrew McDowell, to be midshipmen. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 73. [4°. 1 page.]

1803. Discusses the proposed amendment to the Constitution as to Louisiana. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 63. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1804, March 19, Navy Department. The sending of two additional frigates to the Mediterranean would require an appropriation of about $125,000. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 165. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1804, April 19, Navy Department. Transmits for his consideration a copy of the opinion pronounced by the court of inquiry on Capt. Richard V. Morris. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 166.
[4°. 1 page.]

1804, April 24, Navy Department. Incloses for signature blank warrants for midshipmen, boatswains, gunners, etc. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 167. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1804, May 16. Incloses letter on Captain Morris's case. Should he decide he ought to be dismissed without a court-martial, wishes it to be so corrected. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 168.
[4°. 1 page.]

1804, May 18, Navy Department. Incloses for signature commissions for officers to be promoted. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 169.
[4°. 2 pages.]

1804, May 23, Navy Department. Incloses for signature a commission for Stephen Decatur, jr., to be captain. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 170. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, June 9, Baltimore. The inclosed has confirmed him in his favorable disposition toward the young gentleman mentioned, and he has accordingly made the necessary arrangements about his rank. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting. "St. Clair, Arthur, to obtain his rank."] Series 3, vol. 1, No. 171.
[4°. 2 pages.]

1804, June 17, Baltimore. Has made the necessary arrangements for constructing the gunboats. The form of letters of instructions have been prepared for the building at Charleston, Savannah, Norfolk, Baltimore, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston. Also measures have been taken for building of the brigs authorized by Congress. Has seen with surprise the article in Coleman's paper, but if the course pursued is approved by the Republicans no one should be disturbed by the observations of men beneath their consideration. General Armstrong will accept the appointment to France. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 172. [4°. 3 pages.]

1804, June 28. Will send the warrants for two gentlemen (Hardeman and Hill) to be midshipmen. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 173.

SMITH, ROBERT.

1804, July 3. Has been suffering from fever and ague, so can neither attend the Cabinet meeting nor accept his invitation to dinner. A recruiting officer is in Baltimore trying to obtain men for gunboat No. 1, which is nearly completed. Neither this one nor that being built at Hampton is intended for the Mississippi. Has given Mr. Fox instructions as to the brigs, etc. Thinks one should be built at Washington. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 174. [4°. 4 pages.]

1804, July 15, Baltimore. The appointment solicited can be made with propriety (Mr. Callis). Numerous applications from Maryland and Virginia for appointments in the Navy. Is glad the Osages arrived. It is as well for them to see the strength and resources of the country. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 176. [4°. 3 pages.]

1804, July 19, Baltimore. Has not seen the publication in Major Jackson's paper to which the inclosed alludes, but the material part of Mr. Truxtun's statement is correct. His ambition is to be appointed head of the navy-yard at Washington. Comments upon the affair of General Hamilton and Colonel Burr. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 177. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, July 20, Navy Department. Suggests Mr. Love to be first lieutenant of marines, vice Enoch S. Lane, deceased. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 1. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, July 21, Navy Department. Suggests Mr. Carr to be purser of gunboat No. 1, under command of Lieutenant Lovell. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 2. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1804, September 3, Baltimore. Incloses Captain Truxtun's letter, which is foolish and insolent, although he asserts that no disrespect was intended, etc. States the case of George Harrison, Navy agent at Philadelphia, who served without additional. The position was afterwards given to General Irwin, with a salary of $600. On his death, Harrison was directed to act without pay until otherwise ordered. Has no intention of giving the place permanently to Harrison. The difficulty will be to decide between the conflicting parties among Republican friends T. Coxe has already recommended. William Pinkney will not return to the United States before the autumn. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 5. [4°. 4 pages.]

1804, September 9, Baltimore. Is unable to decipher the name of the writer of the inclosed letter, so requests him to fill up the warrant. From Preble's dispatches concludes peace will not be made with Tripoli. What the conduct of Tunis will be can not be imagined. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 6. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, September 14, Baltimore. Gives the places where the gunboats are being built. It was necessary to choose those where there were Navy agents, experienced naval constructors, etc. Hopes the equinox will force the British frigates from New York and thus open a way for the departure of the French. Is pleased with the list of naval officers. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 7. [4°. 4 pages.]

Washington.

1804, October 25 (received). Considers Mr. Phipps unfit for service, notwithstanding the recommendations of his Connecticut friends. Despite his age, has been retained, although incapable of discharging the duties of a lieutenant on board a man-of-war. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 8. [4°. 2 pages.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1804, October 25 (received). Capt. Daniel Baldwin was given employment in the navy-yard at New York, by Mr. Ludlow, from charity, and was discharged, as there was no further need of his services. The present navy agent stands well, so thinks there is no foundation for the vague insinuations of the man Baldwin. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 9. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, October 25 (received). Bill preserving peace in harbors. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 11. [4°. 5 pages.]

1804, October 27 (received). Bill against arming vessels. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 12. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, October 31 (received). Notes for the message. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 13. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, November 7, Navy Department. Proposed nominations to the Senate. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 15. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, November 15. A commission as captain in the Navy has been sent to Mr. Stephen Decatur, jr. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 16. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, November 22 (received). Memorandum of the cost of building gunboats. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 17. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, November 22 (received). Incloses paper showing the movements of the Spanish troops from Pensacola to Baton Rouge. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 18. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, December 7, Navy Department. Eight gunboats are being built. Estimates of the expense of their maintenance during 1805. Series 3, vol. 2. No. 20. [4°. 2 pages.]

1804, December 13 (received). Annual expense of keeping one gunboat in readiness to receive a crew. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 19. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, December 18, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, twenty commissions for naval officers lately confirmed by the Senate. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 21. [4°. 1 page.]

1804, December 19, Navy Department. Submits for consideration the following gentlemen to be midshipmen, viz: John Wright, A. B. Lindsley, Abner Wickersham, John Kerr, Gervas Clifton, Joseph Blount, William Carter, jr., James McGlanhon, and Turner McGlanhon. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 22. [4°. 1 page.]

1804. List of promotions in the Navy and Marine Corps. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 14. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1805, January 1 (received). Memorandum of the condition of the frigates of the United States. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 10. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, January 29 (received). The subsistence of seamen was not inserted in the statement, as provisions sufficient are on hand without additional appropriation. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 23. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, February 18 (received). Incloses dispatches brought by Lieutenant Izard. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting "Preble's lre. from Tripoli."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 24. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, March 7, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, commissions and warrants for officers in the Navy. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 25. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1805, March 27, Washington. Commodore Preble has most earnestly urged the promotion of Masters Commandant Charles Stewart and Isaac Hull to the rank of captain. High estimate of their character. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 26. [4°. 4 pages.]

1805, April 18, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, commissions for Lieutenants Haraden and Magrath. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 27. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, April 19. The instructions for the commanding officer of the John Adams. Returns commissions which met with only his qualified approbation for reconsideration. Has not considered the peace establishment act in respect to the number of officers and men in the prosecution of the war against Tripoli. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Hull will command the two brigs now in the Mediterranean. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 28. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, April 23, Navy Department. Incloses commission for signature. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 29. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, April 24 (received). Regulations governing promotions in the Navy. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 30. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, April 26 (received). Incloses copy of the letter addressed to Mr. John Randolph respecting the two brigs. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 31. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, April 29, Navy Department. Incloses for signature two commissions for surgeon's mates for the John Adams. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 32. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, May 18, Saturday. [FROM C. W. GOLDSBOROUGH.] Incloses for signature the instructions to commanders of the bomb vessels Spitfire and Vengeance. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 33. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, May 26, Baltimore. Thinks it is bad economy to suffer the company of marines to remain at New Orleans for the purpose of manning the gunboats being built on the Ohio. Difficulties attending the shipbuilding. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 34. [Folio. 2 pages.]

1805, May 28, Baltimore. Incloses letter from Commodore Preble. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 36. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, May 28, Baltimore. Inclosed is a private letter, in the sense that it is not to be filed among the public ones. Should it be necessary to send Commodore Preble abroad, it would not be proper to accede to such vague propositions as his. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 37. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, June 11, Baltimore. Acknowledges letter of the 9th with the application of the body corporate for permission to erect a bridge across pond of the navy-yard at New York. Disapproves the design for Preble's medal. Has put the building of the gunboats on the Western waters. Is sorry there is difficulty in filling the office of district judge of New York. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 38. [4°. 4 pages.]

1805, June 12, Baltimore. Fears that it is our storeship which has been taken by the Spanish privateer. Has ordered Captain Tingey to freight a vessel to take its place. The powder bought of Dupont was put in the Huntress. With respect to the fast-sailing pilot boat to search for the captor and captured vessel, thinks it best to wait till better informed on the subject. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 39. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, June 21, Baltimore. Mr. Smith's letter alluded to has not been received. Mr. Fanning is the commanding officer of gunboat No. 1, at Charleston, and Mr. Smith is navy agent at that place. He is probably the writer, so no additional instructions seem necessary. If it be essential to have an armed vessel to protect our seacoast, the Adams can be ready in three weeks. Has news of Lord Nelson's fleet having arrived at the West Indies. The pirates who took the Huntress probably destroyed her papers and by force obtained from the crew a declaration that her destination was Santo Domingo. She will probably be condemned at some small port. Series 3, vol. 2. No. 40. [4°. 4 pages.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1805, June 23, Baltimore. Upon receipt of his letter, desired the navy agent in Baltimore to inform him when and on what terms a fast-sailing vessel could be procured for Porto Rico. Thinks Captain Tingey must command her, as it must be some one who possesses the necessary information to reclaiming the Huntress and cargo. The punishment of the Spanish officers should be demanded, etc. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 41.
[4°. 3 pages.]

1805, June 24, Baltimore. States the terms on which a vessel may be procured to proceed to Porto Rico in the matter of the storeship Huntress. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 42.
[Folio. 3 pages.]

1805, June 27, Baltimore. The reasons given for abandoning the plan of sending out the express boat are very satisfactory. The squadron will not be allowed to suffer from the detention or loss of the Huntress. Captain Tingey has been directed to suspend repairs on the Chesapeake and attend to the equipment of the Adams. Wishes the British and French fleets were both in their proper hemisphere. Purchasers fear a rise in wheat to $2. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 43. [Folio. 3 pages.]

1805, June 28, Navy-Yard, Washington. [FROM LOVELL, M. B. (master Attendant).] According to order, gives as nearly as possible the draught of water of each ship in ordinary. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 69. [Folio. 1 page.]

1805, June 29, Baltimore. Incloses extract from the Coffee House Book, from which it seems that the storeship the Huntress has been recaptured by the English. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 44 and 45. [Scrap of paper. 4°. 1 page.]

1805, July 9, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, warrants for midshipmen and officers for the Adams and the Hornet. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 46. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, July 11, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, blank commissions for officers of the Adams and Hornet. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 70. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1805, August 21, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, a commission for John Williams to be lieutenant of marines. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 48. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, August 26, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, blank commissions and warrants. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 47.
[4°. 1 page.]

1805, August 30, Baltimore. The safe arrival of the John Adams and the gunboats at Gibraltar. A powerful impression will be made by the squadron on the Barbary States. The bomb ketches, equipped under Commander Preble at Boston, sailed on the 19th and 23d of June. Can not reach Tripoli before August. Incloses copy of the instructions sent Captain Murray, Captain Chauncey, etc. The Hornet and Wasp are highly creditable to the builders. Mrs. Madison's indisposition detains Mr. Madison longer than he expected. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 49. [4°. 7 pages.]

1805, August 31, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, a commission for Mr. Town to be second lieutenant of marines. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 50. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, September 1, Baltimore. Has been informed privately of the great solicitude shown by Mr. Town's friends for his appointment in the Marine Corps. Such an officer is needed. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 51. [4°. 1 page.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1805, September 8, Baltimore. Handbills are being circulated through the city announcing peace with Tripoli upon advantageous and honorable terms. Will reserve his views on our affairs with Spain until they meet. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 52. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, September 7, Baltimore. The Navy Department has received no dispatches by the vessel which brought to Salem the news of peace with Tripoli. Supposes peace was accelerated by the movements of Eaton in the neighborhood of Derna. Mr. Madison still remains in Philadelphia. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 53. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, September 9, Baltimore. Incloses dispatches lately received from the Mediterranean. Thinks it advisable to publish certain parts of these in order to gratify public anxiety. Had expected a treaty of a different character and wishes such a one had not been made. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 54. [4°. 2 pages.]

1805, September 10, Baltimore. The communications from our ministers at Madrid show mortification at the failure of the negotiation and at its conduct on the part of Spain. Be her motives what they may, it is a crisis demanding the gravest consideration. She presumes too much on our reluctance to go to war. It would be an indignity to ourselves to send another envoy, and there are no grounds for believing another gentleman would succeed where Monroe and Pinckney have failed. The protection of Orleans should be one of the first measures taken in case of war. Discusses the situation at length. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 55. [4°. 9 pages.]

1805, September 19, Baltimore. Forwards dispatches from the Mediterranean brought by the President. Has been visited by officers, lately prisoners in Tripoli. They unite in saying that if Lear had persisted in not ransoming them peace would not have been made. The Bashaw had decided to massacre them, etc. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 56. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1805, October 16, Navy Department. Gives the reasons which led to the coolness between Commodore Truxtun and himself, their reconciliation, etc. Approves his reinstatement, as he pledges his honor that his letter of March 3, 1802, was not intended as a resignation. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 71. [4°. 5 pages.]

1805, November 11. Extra expenditures of the Navy Department, incurred during the year 1805, and not estimated for. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 80. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, November 11. Explains the statement made as to extra expenses not estimated for. No money in the Treasury subject to his control to pay the crews of the Congress and Constellation, so has ordered them to New York to wait orders. They can be beneficially used on that station and the real reason not given out. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 81. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, November 14 (received). Proposed bill for establishing a naval militia. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 56*a*. [4°. 4 pages.]

1805, November 18. Mr. Gallatin has abandoned the idea of desiring the collectors to deposit with the navy agents moneys to be paid the crews of the expected frigates, and recommends the proper mode in the inclosed letter. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 57. [4°. 1 page]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1805, November 27 (received). Notes for the message. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 59. [4°. 3 pages.]

1805, November 29. On the following morning will present certain officers of the Navy. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 60. [4°. 1 page.]

1805, December 4 (received). Notes for the Spanish message. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 61. [½ page.]

1805, December 27. In accordance with his (Jefferson's) recommendation, sent a warrant to Thomas D. Chamberlayne as midshipman. To his surprise it was returned with his letter under a blank cover. Incloses to ascertain who has been guilty of the indecorum. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 62 and 63. [4°. 1 page.]

Washington.

1806, January 3. Information respecting the harbor of Beaufort. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 64. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, January 25. Thinks no notice should be taken of the inclosed letter, the writer of which must be as unprincipled as impudent. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting "Pierson's lre."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 65. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, January 30 (received). Has called on Captain Tingey for a report as to the cost of the gunboats which his duty required him to make to the Navy Department. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 66. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, February 1. Asks the return of the statement of the cost of the gunboats lately sent him. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 67. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, February 9 (received). The Hornet, Captain Dent, is to take the dispatches to France. She sails from New York to accommodate Mr. Gallatin. Incloses an "afflicting letter" which explains his leaving Washington. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 72. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, February 17 [FROM C. W. GOLDSBOROUGH]. Wrote to Mr. Smith, agreeably to his (Jefferson's) request, for the extract from Commodore Preble's letter. Quotes from his answer, saying it can not be furnished, it being among his private papers; therefore incloses the statements as to gunboats as they were received. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 68. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, March 21, Navy Department. Congress having made no appropriation for the service of the Navy, has not the means of sending the Hornet to sea. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 73. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, April 21, Navy Department. Has seen the bill pending before the Senate additional to an act supplementary to the act providing for a naval peace establishment, and the restrictions thereof will prevent the Chesapeake being sent to the Mediterranean. One proviso is that the whole number of able seamen, ordinary seamen, and boys shall not exceed 925. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 74. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, April 28, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, commissions for the lieutenants authorized by the act of April 21, 1806. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 75. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1806, May 14, Navy Department. Incloses letters showing that Commodore Rodgers proposes to retain these vessels in the Mediterranean conditionally ordered home, assuming we were in ignorance of the situation with the Barbary powers. We have, however, no reason to fear war. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 76. [4°. 3 pages.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1806, May 23, Navy Department. Agreeably to his (Jefferson's) opinion and to that of the Administration, has not forwarded to Commodore Rodgers the proposed letter countermanding the orders of October 12, 1805, as to sending home the Essex, sloops of war, etc., but has recalled his attention to them and charged him to carry them into effect. The Constitution, Hornet, and one small vessel will remain in the Mediterranean; more would occasion an expense beyond the appropriation. Presumes the Tunisian minister will not leave before the middle of July, which gives ample time for instructions as to measures to be pursued after the Bey has received Mali Meli's communication. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 77. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1806, June 12. As Mr. Cutting's note accords with other information respecting Captain Ingraham, has given him the office of navy agent. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 78. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, June 20, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, warrants for midshipmen. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 79. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, June 26. The navy agent was directed to pay to Mr. Reich the amount mentioned in the memorandum received from him (Jefferson). This was refused. He boasts much of what he (Jefferson) will do for him. It is a question whether, if his case is interfered with, the Department will not be much harassed by appeals from its decisions. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 82. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, June 27. The inclosed should put an end to the affair of the medal. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting, "Reich."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 83. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, July 7 (received). Thinks it proper to submit the inclosed to him, though not an official letter. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting "Com'rs of Louisiana."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 84. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, July 9, Navy Department. Has received the communication of Nathaniel Cutting, in which he submits the expediency of appointing him to an office similar that of "Surveyor General of the admiralty" in Great Britain. No such office exists and at present sees no necessity for creating it. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 85. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, July 17. Is informed by Captain Hull that he omitted to give the name of the purser of his brig. Mr. Goldsborough, an officer who deserves notice. Arrival of the Nautilus, Captain Evans. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 86. [4°. 2 pages.]

Monticello.

1806, August 6, Baltimore. Regrets that the Tunisian minister should create additional difficulties. Not knowing what course he (Jefferson) would prefer in this delicate case, will postpone orders until his determination is known. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 87. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, August 16, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, blank warrants. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 88. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, September 3, Baltimore. Regrets his ignorance of his (Jefferson's) opinion of Mr. Meade, as then he would not have appointed him navy agent. Considers Mr. Yznardi utterly unfitted for a similar position. The power consuls now have of appointing deputies should be revoked. Sand's application should not be acted on until Mr. Giles has been seen, especially as there are no vacancies among the midshipmen to be filled. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 89. [Folio. 2 pages.]

1806, October 12, Baltimore. Private affairs prevent his presence in Washington. Begs no measure may be postponed on that account. Rejoices that the office of collector has been offered to Nicholson. Not thinking of him (Nicholson), recommended Colonel Stricker for it to Mr. Gallatin. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 90. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, October 13. Intended starting for Washington the following day, but the death of General Smith's son detains him. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 91. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, November 11. Finds the gunboats can not be sent to New Orleans at this time consistently with the law of the last session. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 107. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, December 1. Bomb vessels and gunboats and where stationed. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 105 and 106. [4°. 1½ pages.]

1806, December 4. Requests a copy of the special message of the previous day, considering it important that constituents should have some view of it. Mr. Madison also wishes a copy. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 110. [4°. 2 pages.]

1806, December 12. Has received a letter from a naval officer at Charleston, stating that "the only situations to be had here at present are in the African trade." This indicates the disposition of South Carolina. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 111. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, December 12. Wishes to know the number with which it would be agreeable to him (Jefferson) to fill the blank in the inclosed answer to Mr. Nulgen's letter of inquiry. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting "Gunboats."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 112. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, December 19. List of vessels in readiness for sea. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 108. [4°. 1 page.]

1806, December 22. Feels constrained to give his opinions on the movements of Colonel Burr in the western country, viz: Thinks General Wilkinson should be ordered to withdraw the Army from the Sabine and take post at New Orleans, and by all means in his power to prevent any military expedition proceeding thence against any friendly nation; also the letters in his (Jefferson's) possession respecting Burr's designs and movements should be confidentially laid before Congress with a message calling for a suspension of the habeas corpus and an appropriation for naval equipment for the Mississippi, etc. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 113. [Folio. 4 pages.]

Washington.

1807, January 7. The inclosed is for the President's consideration. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting "Thompson and Wharton."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 118. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, January 13, Navy Department. The Act of April 21, 1806, providing the number of men in the service shall not exceed 920 will prevent the Chesapeake and Wasp being sent to the Mediterranean. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 119. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, February 7 (received). Has marked a section, in the message on gunboats, which in his opinion should be stricken. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 120. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, February 13. The officer complained of by Mr. Taber is Hull, nephew of General Hull. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 121. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, March 6. Could not write to Captain Hull, either privately or officially, in relation to Mr. Taber's suggestions, so caused his chief clerk to write and inclose the answer thereto. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 122. [4°. 1 page.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1807, March 28. As the brig Dolly does not belong to the Navy Department, returns Mr. Brook's note. Presumes she is a revenue cutter. Vail's case will be attended to duly. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 123. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, May 23. A letter to Norfolk will reach the Chesapeake in time, and Mr. Higgins can draw on him (Smith) as before. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 124. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, July 1. Memorandum of the state of ketches and gunboats of the United States Navy. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 103. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, July 7 (received). Gunboats in Virginia and where stationed. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 104. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, August 11, Charleston, S. C. [FROM WILLIAM BASQUEN.] Submits plan and drawing for a new vessel. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 92. [Folio. 8 pages.]

1807, July 17. The letter of "W. C. N." has his unqualified approbation. Concurs in his own opinion of the expediency of an immediate call of Congress and a demand for the punishment of the offending British officers. His reasons therefor are: Virginia has been actually invaded, and in case of invasion it is the constitutional duty, not of the State, but of the General Government, to repel such. Third. When a war de facto has been commenced that the Executive has not the means of controlling, we should have, in function, the department of our Government to which alone is intrusted the power of taking up the question of war. Discusses the subject at length. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 125. [4°. 9 pages.]

1807, July 20. All the carpenter's work on the Chesapeake has been completed. Incloses extracts showing that a schooner has been sent for the Leopard, which has gone to Halifax. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 126. [4°. 2 pages.]

Monticello.

1807, August 1, Navy Department. Incloses the proceedings of a court-martial held at New Orleans upon Dr. William Rogers, of the Navy. The sentence can not be carried into effect until approved by the President. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 127. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, August 23, Baltimore. Mr. Francis Johonnet, merchant, has been appointed Navy agent. Affairs on the Continent of Europe will incline the British Government to our communications by the Revenge. Since the attack on the Chesapeake British cruisers have been indulgent to our merchant vessels. Hopes in a few days to send the sheep and chickens mentioned to him. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 128. [4°. 4 pages.]

1807, August 27. Deposition sworn to before Samuel Sterett, notary public, as to the capture of the Othello, Russel Glover, master, from Liverpool, by an armed pilot-boat schooner, supposed to be acting in connection with the ship Patriot, manned by Frenchmen. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 129. [Folio. 4 pages.]

1807, August 27, Baltimore. Details of the capture of the Othello in the Chesapeake. A private understanding between the pirates and the officers of the Patriot is suspected. Turreau's prompt action in the matter has given great satisfaction. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 130 and 131. [4°. 8 pages.]

1807, August 29, Baltimore. The accompanying papers give the ideas of Mr. Gallatin and the presidents of certain insurance companies on the subject of the effect of giving notice to our East India trade of our affairs with Great Britain. Differs from them and thinks the appearance of an armed vessel of the United States would arouse suspicions of war among the British cruisers, etc. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 132. [Folio. 7 pages.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1807, August 30, Baltimore. The militia that went in pursuit of the pirates that have infested the bay have been successful and have returned with the vessel. They requested Captain Porter to take command. Has been informed that a vessel has lately sailed from Philadelphia for Batavia. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 133. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, August 31, Baltimore. Mr. Crowninshield is of opinion that the required notice to the East India trade can not be given by one vessel. Sees difficulties in sending a public armed vessel to any port where the British are. The same hazard would be run in sending one to the Straits of Funda. Should it be decided to send a private vessel the expenses might be defrayed out of the funds appropriated to the State Department. Has received and forwarded to the Attorney-General his (Jefferson's) interesting communication relating to the Indians. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 134. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807, September 10, Baltimore. Submits the inclosed for his consideration. [Indorsed in Jefferson's handwriting "Brit. vessels at N. Y."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 135. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, September 27, Baltimore. As the assembling will take place shortly at Washington, declines instituting any judicial proceedings in the case of Captain Porter. The view taken of it by Mr. Madison, and, indeed, all of the Cabinet, is no doubt correct, but when looked at in connection with similar outrages on the part of British officers there is some embarrassment. The inclosed will show the ideas of practical men on the project of Thomas Paine. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 136. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1807, October 7. List of officers of the Navy and Marines at Washington. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 102. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, October 14 (received). Contracts for military stores, ordnance, etc. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 137. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, October 16, Navy Department. Commodore Preble's death has caused a vacancy in the corps of captains in the Navy. Incloses a commission for John Shaw, the senior officer in the corps of masters commandant, and one for P. C. Wedentrandt, vice Shaw, promoted. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 138. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, October 19 (received). Notes for the message. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 139 and 140. [4°. 5 pages.]

1807, October 23. The frigate United States can not be prepared to sail for either New York or Boston within the time mentioned. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 141. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, November 12. A conversation with the Secretary of State has made it seem expedient to add the inclosed to the communication to Mr. Blount. [Indorsed in Jefferson's hand—"Affr. of Chesapeake."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 142. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, November 17. Submits the inclosed for consideration. [Indorsed in Jefferson's hand—"Naval defense."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 143. [4°. 1 page.]

1807, December 7, Navy Department. Incloses list of officers of the Navy appointed during the recess of the Senate. List. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 144 and 145. [4°. 3 pages.]

1807, December 31, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, warrants for midshipmen, to fill vacancies now existing in the corps. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 146. [4°. 1 page.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1807, December 28, Navy Department. Incloses the nomination to the Senate of Dr. Samuel D. Heap, to be a surgeon in the Navy. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 148 and 149. [4°. 2 pages.]

1807. State of the gunboats at New Orleans and of those in the Western country. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 101. [4°. 1 page.]

1807. Number and distribution of gunboats. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 114, 115 and 116. [3½ pages.]

Washington.

1808, January 7. Will call to receive instructions in relation to the points suggested in his note. [Indorsed in Jefferson's hand—"gunboats."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 147. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, January 8 (received). Statement as to the gunboats under the last law and where stationed. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 94, 95 and 96. [½ page and folio 1 page.]

1808, January 13, Navy Department. The number of seamen employed exceeds those estimated for by 670. A reduction must be made. So it appears the gunboats can not be manned unless the Executive be authorized to employ more. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 98. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, January 18. Exhibit of the number of able seamen, ordinary seamen and boys now in service. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 97. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, January 26, Navy Department. Incloses a communication from the mayor of New York. Under the law can not employ a greater number of seamen than are now in service. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 150. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, January 27, Navy Department. Incloses for signature, commissions for the officers in the list accompanying his letter of the 7th ultimo. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 151. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, February 17, Navy Department. By the act for the better government of the Navy, all sentences of courts-martial dismissing a commissioned or warrant officer, must be approved by the President. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 152. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, March 10. From Mr. Tazewell's letter it appears that the evidence adduced in the trials will not soon be transmitted. When received will be at once forwarded, and he (Jefferson) will be enabled to judge of the propriety of the sentences of the courts-martial. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 153. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, March 19. Mr. Madison wishes to know if the hint about returning in the Revenge was not in General Armstrong's private letter, as it can not be found in the public ones. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 154. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, April 13, Navy Department. Recommends Mr. Tarbell to be master commandant, vice George Cox, resigned. Lieutenant Blake is not thought entitled to promotion. Nomination to the Senate. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 155 and 156. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, April 22, Navy Department. Submits list of persons to fill six vacancies in the grade of lieutenant in the Navy. List. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 157 and 158. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, April 26, Navy Department. Incloses for signature commissions for six lieutenants lately appointed in the Navy. Series 3, vol. 2. No. 159. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, April 28. Desires to know if the inclosed conforms to his wishes. [Indorsed in Jefferson's hand—"Cruisers for embargo."] Series 3, vol. 2, No. 160. [4°. 1 page.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1808, May 3, Navy Department. Thinks the sentence of the court, inclosed, on Midshipman Swearingen should be carried into effect. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 161. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, May 6, Navy Department. Should the sentence upon William Hook, gunner of the Chesapeake, be approved, he will be pleased to place his signature under the word "Confirmed." Series 3, vol. 2, No. 166. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, May 17, Washington. Incloses letter from Mr. Mead, Navy agent at Cadiz, a private letter from Bullus as to the state of parties in New York, and a letter addressed to him (Jefferson), just delivered by Dr. Ridgely, late acting consul at Tripoli. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 162. [4°. 1 page.]

Monticello.

1808, May 26, Navy Department. Incloses copy of Commodore Truxtun. Regrets the errors therein stated committed by their predecessors in the execution of his medal. It will be a duty to carry out the direction of the legislative department of the Government by making one free from defects, etc. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 164. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, May 27. Acknowledges letter of the 20th, inclosing one to Dr. Rush. Regrets the misunderstandings among the medical gentlemen. Has sent to Dr. Waterhouse a letter, a copy of which is inclosed. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 165. [4°. 2 pages.]

Washington.

1808, June 14, Navy Department. Incloses letters relating to Captain Truxtun's medal, and asks his determination on that subject. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 167. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, June 25. Incloses letter from Captain Tingey. In his answer to Commodore Truxtun has informed him it would be submitted to the President. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 168. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, July 16. Has heard a report brought from Halifax by one Captain Sherman that the British June packet had arrived bringing intelligence of the British having again taken Copenhagen; that Mr. Rose was preparing to sail for the United States with full powers to adjust all matters in dispute. This may be without foundation; it is, however, probably true in part. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 169. [4°. 2 pages.]

Monticello.

1808, July 19, Baltimore. Mr. Gallatin will inform him (Smith) from New York, of the several points at which gunboats will be necessary. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 170. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, July 30, Baltimore. Upon receiving the inclosed, immediately made arrangements for the Chesapeake, Wasp, and Argus to go to our eastern coast and there remain till otherwise instructed. Has called the attention of commanders to the points requiring especial vigilance. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 171. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, August 13, Baltimore. Acknowledges letter of the 9th, and has forwarded the inclosure to Mr. Gallatin, with the requisite instructions to Commodore Rodgers. No gunboats but those that can be spared from New York can be put on the proposed service. The gunboats proposed could not be employed because of the want of men. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 172. [4°. 3 pages.]

1808, August 16, Navy Department. [FROM CH. W. GOLDSBOROUGH.] According to Mr. Smith's instruction to send from time to time a summary of the gunboats, incloses a statement showing those built and being built. Statement. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 173 and 174. [4°. 2 pages.]

SMITH, ROBERT.

1808, August 16, Navy Department. [FROM CH. W. GOLDSBOROUGH.] Incloses paper "B," being a view of the stations of the gunboats in actual service, and captures. Reports of daring evasions of the embargo laws are received daily. Naval officers perform their duty and few seizures are made. Series 3, vol. 2, Nos. 175 and 176. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, September 14, Baltimore. It has been necessary to give the command of the gunboats to young officers. Newspapers state the misconduct of two of these, but no complaints have been made to the Navy Department. Has ordered Commodore Rodgers to ascertain the truth and report thereon. From our discomfiture in the Eastern elections it would seem that Republicanism is yielding the crown to the enemy. Probable results in other States. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 178. [4°. 4 pages.]

1808, September 24, Baltimore. Before he received the papers in the case of the demand of Governor Grand Pre, had forwarded papers on the same subject. The War and Navy Departments should follow the same course, so that no steps should be taken not perfectly consistent with the principles urged in our discussions with other governments. Political situation in various States. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 179. [4°. 4 pages.]

Washington.

1808, November 1. Is of opinion that the Government can not retreat one inch from the ground taken in relation to France and England. Suggests for his consideration the policy of immediately calling Armstrong and Pinkney home, but not in a manner to produce a rupture. Congress should be recommended, in a message, to suspend commercial intercourse with the two belligerents, and authorize by law the necessary arrangements preparatory to war. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 181. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, November 1. State of the gunboats built under the act of the last session. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 99. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808, November 3. [Private.] Hanson, Tingey, and Cassin, in their mutual accusations, have asked a court of inquiry. Presumes they are to be indulged, though many allegations may not be established. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 182. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, November 29, Navy Department. Incloses the report of the accountant of the Navy upon the case of George Blount. He himself saw the sample of the Philadelphia cartouch box, and that made by Mr. Blount was inferior. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 183. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, December 9. Had any papers in the Neale case been sent to him (Smith) according to the established form of the Department, they must have been transmitted to Colonel Wharton. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 184. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, December 12. Incloses the only papers in the Neale case that have been sent him. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 185. [4°. 1 page.]

1808, December 16, Navy Department. The extent of our coast, inclemency of the winter, etc., make it impossible for public vessels to repress the violations of the embargo law. Suggests stationing one or more gunboats in our principal ports, and ordering the Chesapeake, Argus, Wasp, and Hornet to cruise to the windward of Barbadoes, Guadaloupe, etc. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 186. [4°. 2 pages.]

1808. [FROM JOHN R. FENWICK (adjutant).] Muster roll of the officers of the Marine Corps at headquarters. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 100. [4°. 1 page.]

21382—No. 10—03——12

1809, January 14, Navy Department. Incloses list of officers nominated for the Marine Corps, and of surgeon's mates in the Navy. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 187. [4°. 1 page.]

1809, January 21. Memorandum giving the stations of gunboats. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 192*a*. [½ page.]

1809, January 26. As Mr. Jones, judge-advocate, has not sent the proceedings of the court, no notice can be taken, at present, of Mr. Hanson's note. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 188. [4°. 1 page.]

1809, January 30. Will wait on him the following day for his determination as to the service of the frigate Chesapeake. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 189. [4°. 1 page.]

1809, January 30. [Confidential.] Thomas Robertson and his family are among the prominent opposers of the Republicans in Maryland. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 190. [4°. 1 page.]

1809, February 8. List of persons nominated to be midshipmen and lieutenants in the Navy. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 191. [4°. 1 page.]

1809, February 14, Navy Department. The promotion of Midshipman Drayton would be an injustice to others equally deserving. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 193. [4°. 2 pages.]

1809, February 21. As the order mentioned in the inclosed letter may produce war between the United States and Great Britain, requests special instructions as to the answer to be sent Captain Porter. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 194. [4°. 1 page.]

1809, February 22, Navy Department. Saltpeter and sulphur to be purchased under the act for procuring an additional number of arms, etc. $150,000 are appropriated. Dr. Hunter's proposal for supplying refined saltpeter. Series 3, vol. 2, No. 195. [4°. 2 pages.]

SMITH, SAMUEL (Acting Secretary of the Navy). Monticello.

1801, April 2, Washington. A report is in circulation of a fracas between the French, English, and American sailors at Norfolk. He is putting the Navy into the desired situation as rapidly as possible. Asks letters of introduction for his son, Louis Buchanan Smith, who sails for Europe shortly. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 117. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, April 6, Baltimore. Incloses letter from Mr. Dawson. The fracas at Norfolk commenced with the English and French sailors. No lives were lost. The General Greene has been ordered from Newport to the Eastern Branch. Again urges the necessity of filling the office of Secretary, since attention to his private affairs is incompatible with the business of the Department. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 118. [4°. 3 pages.]

Washington.

1801, April 30, Navy Department. Incloses paper respecting the court-martial of Doctor Windship. The sentence being dismissal, it remains with the President to approve, or the contrary. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 119. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, May 4, Navy Department. According to request, gives as correct an idea of the Navy as his short acquaintance with the Department enables him to do. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 120. [4°. 6 pages.]

1801, May 4, Navy Department. Incloses the latest information as to the force of the Barbary Powers. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 121. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, May 23, Navy Department. Incloses the deposition and application of Messrs. Leamy, Price, and Coxe, citizens of Philadelphia, praying that a public armed ship may be sent to Vera Cruz for certain money they have there. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 122. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, June 3, Navy Department. Rufus Low, not having a warrant, was dismissed the service. Has, therefore, no claim to the four months' extra pay allowed officers dismissed under the act. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 127. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, June 4, Navy Department. Incloses, for signature, commissions and warrants, all for old appointment, except in the case of George Grey Grubb. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 123. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, June 6, Navy Department. The squadron under Commodore Dale sailed on the 1st. Incloses letter from Captain Truxtun. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 124. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, June 8, Navy Department. Incloses, for consideration, the proceedings of the courts-martial held on Lieutenants Latimer and Webb and Midshipman Attwood and others. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 125. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, June 10, Navy Department. Submits his answer to Governor Drayton on the subject of French prisoners in custody in South Carolina. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 126. [4°. 1 page.]

1801, June 13, Navy Department. Since his last letter has endeavored to inform himself as to the navy-yards purchased for the use of the public. Quotes the acts governing this matter. Movements of the ships of the United States. The peace establishment nearly completed. Marine barracks contracted for. Series 3, vol. 1, No. 128. [4°. 6 pages.]
